

A View of Sasha Votichenko's museum-studio, at 36 Central Park South, showing the eminent Russian composer's tympanon, upon which he interprets his own music and that of the older composers. Tympanon music charmed Louis XIV when his court at Versailles was the artistic centre of the world.

Annette Kellermann and a duck are sisters under their skin when it comes to getting wet. Here's proof that the star of "A Daughter of the Gods" likes water.
