

Trousers for Women!

Photos Gertrude A. Brugman.

Carlotta de Felici divides her time between writing and acting moving pictures. She started wearing trousers in her roles, but now prefers them for the home too.

Beatrice Machin finds trousers the only practical garb for housework. Climbing ladders in skirts is too perilous for her.

Arna Deck, of the Fox Film Company, votes for overalls because they are so pocketty. When not acting, she makes furniture for herself and her friends.

Mrs. Richborg Hornsby, who has made many flights for suffrage. Skirts are impossible in the airplane, she says.
