

AMONG US MORTALS

DRAWN BY W. E. HILL

THE SUBSCRIPTION DANCE

The lady who got up the dance counts sixteen more couples than she has taken tickets for.

The snappy dancer who wishes he knew Mrs. Castle, and who covers a great deal of floor space in the meantime.

The supper cliques—each thinks itself the most exclusive coterie of the evening.

The sub-freshman home on a vacation, and the pre-debutante sing "I'm a member of the souse fam-i-lee" by the lemonade bowl.

"Let's just dance round and round in this corner, and everybody'll think we're engaged!"

The orchestra which has just been asked for the thirteenth encore to "They're Wearing 'Em Higher in Hawaii."

A tense moment. Somebody blunders in the Paul Jones.
