

To the left, the Memorial Day parade as it started from Washington Square on its way up Fifth Avenue. Fifty thousand schoolboys were in line as the ranks passed the reviewing stand at 42d Street.

Brooklyn society women who are knitting comfort-kits for sailors of the U. S. S. New York. Left to right, Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Elsie E. Calder (daughter of the New York Senator), Miss Helen Halbert, Miss Mildred Baxter, Miss Avery Worth and Miss Dorothy Angell.

Gen. Bell, of the Governor Whitman, Riverside Drive d

The Texas and New York divisions of headquarters before the Memorial Day parade joined the city troop to parade at Camp Dewey, 1

Above, Harvard decks itself in khaki and turns out its regiment to be reviewed in the stadium by Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, of the Department of the Northeast.

Photo © International Film Service

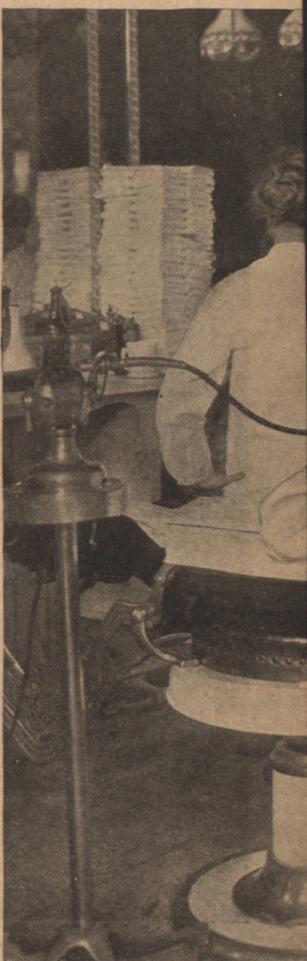

A noted ex-President (1) addresses the crowd at Mineola, L. I., after reviewing the Home Guard of Nassau County on Memorial Day.

Photo Leo H. Bock

The Spring festival at Mount Holyoke College. The view above shows the audience gathered at Pageant Field to watch the folk dancing.

Photo T. C. Hawkes

Woman-haters had best beware of her hand. Here is Miss Sadie Max, popular barber shops of the city.