British Commission arriving at City Hall—as seen from Tribune Building office window.

Overlooking City Hall Park

There's always something going on beneath the sunlit offices of The Tribune Building.

Right in the heart of downtown New York, with subway, L, Broadway cars and Brooklyn Bridge trains within three minutes' walk, The Tribune Building is an ideal location for the offices of the attorney or business man.

Some space still left for those who like to be near things and who appreciate good neighbors. See the superintendent on the premises or Edward J. Hogan, agent, at the Woolworth Building. Our phone number is Beekman 3000.

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK
Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.
Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

Apple Pie—given the prominence it deserves, by the Hotel Belleclaire—has finally attracted the attention of scientists, who pronounce it more nutritious than any other food.

The New York Evening Mail says that "Apple pie, born in the spicy fragrance of an old fashioned New England kitchen, has come to its own at last and has been given a pension and reposes beneath a glass at the American Museum of Natural History."

Belleclaire Apple Pie is not allowed "to repose" in the larder or on a plate for very long. It is too good, too tempting for that. People want it as fast as it is made.

All of the other Belleclaire pies are enjoying "a great run," as theatrical folks say about a good play—due to the popularity and excellence of their Big Brother, The Apple Pie.

Lemon, Strawberry, Custard Meringue Pies, Pineapple, Coconut and other pies are devoured with great satisfaction because of the Belleclaire label.

See what a good name will do?
