

To the left Mrs. Hastings Arnold, of Smithtown, L. I., with "Danny Deever," whom she exhibited at the Ladies' Kennel Association Show at Mineola.
Photo © Underwood & Underwood

New York's "only gen-u-ine gambling hell"—a feature of the Macdougall Alley Festa, where roulette and faro were in full sway for sweet charity's sake.
Photo © International Film Service

To the left, Mrs. August Belmont, formerly known to the public as Eleanor Robson, trying her skill as a markswoman at the Alley Festa.
Photo © American Press Association

A general view of Macdougall Alley as it was converted into a typical Italian street for the War Relief Festa.
Photo Kadel & Herbert

Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, in charge of the Alley Festa, as she was caught ordering the carpenters to clean up after themselves when through working.
Photo © Kadel & Herbert

Guests at the Governor's Island garden party are shown above, watching airplane manoeuvres directly above the soldiers who are at drill.
Photo © International Film Service

Right to left, above, members of the Rifle Squad of the Brooklyn Woman's Suffrage party at drill, Miss Elizabeth Smart, Miss Elizabeth Glassford, Mrs. A. Dougoid and Mrs. Catherine McKeon.
Photo Press Illustrating Service

On the left, Miss Carol Harriman, snapped while taking a jump at the Tuxedo Charity Horse Show on Apology.
Photo © International Film Service

Debutantes at the Tuxedo Park races a week ago, dividing their time between sports and their knitting. Left to right: Misses Geraldine Adee, Frances Field, Virginia Lowney, Eileen Sedgwick, and Adelaide Sedgwick.
Photo Paul Thompson