

SHERMAN STATUE IN CENTRAL PARK PLAZA

"They must be made to feel and acknowledge the might and power of a just and mighty nation.

William Tecumseh Sherman.

FARRAGUT STATUE IN MADISON SQUARE

"Damn the torpedoes!
Full speed ahead!"

David G. Farragut.

"—the day has come when America is privileged to spend her blood and her might for the principles that gave her birth and happiness and the peace which she has treasured."

Woodrow Wilson.

WASHINGTON STATUE
—SUB TREASURY BUILDING

"There is nothing which will so soon produce a speedy and honorable peace as a state of preparation for war."

George Washington.

HALE STATUE IN CITY HALL PARK

"I regret that I have but one life to lose for my country!"

Nathan Hale.