

Norma Talmadge, the film favorite—who, at twenty-one, heads her own company has a fine scorn for civilization and the indoors and loves best the rotes that bring her nomadic nature uppermost

Miss Marie Christine Cozzins, daughter of Stanley Cozzins, of New York City, whose engagement to Joseph J. Badell, prominent banker of Providence, R. I., has just been announced. Miss Cozzins has devoted much time to Red Cross and social service work.

"Five words a day," says the inexorable Lillian Russell to her French classes formed among our soldiers. She is shown here teaching the boys of the First Field Artillery in the barracks near her home in Pittsburgh.

Left—Margherita Beriza, of the Opera Comique-Boston Grand Opera—is the writer of the new patriotic play "Past and Present," to be opened on Broadway shortly, the proceeds to go to war relief.

Fred Stone and a few of the cast in "Jack o' Lantern" at the Globe. This worthy successor of "Chin Chin" has much to be said of its scenery, costumes and comic appeal. Not a few of the players were also identified with "Chin Chin."

Lillian Russell's
OWN
SMOOTHOUT CREAM

It
Velvetizes
the Skin

YOU know that wonderful feeling of pure joy which depends upon you as you change into soft, loose clothing after a refreshing rub? Well, that's just the way your face feels when you smooth out all its tired lines and tense muscles with my own Smoothout Cream.

As soon as Smoothout touches your cheeks it liquefies and is swallowed up thirstily by the tiny pores. Cooling, soothing, delightful. It tortifies your skin against the wind and sun. "Pat it into your face with your finger tips. Smoothout restores to the tissues the elasticity of youth, prevents new wrinkles, smooths out those already formed; cleanses the pores, clears the blemishes. It velvetizes the skin.

"Just astringent enough to refine the pores and make a splendid base for face powder.
