

U. S. Navy recruiting poster. An auto-lithograph by Frank Brangwyn, the British painter, who has just been appointed one of the official artists of the War Office. It is believed that this lithograph is the largest one drawn on the stone by an artist himself.

At the Lord Roberts memorial workshops—Captured German aeroplanes which have taken part in raids on England are being converted into toys and ornaments. Western News Union.

THEN AND NOW—A photograph of twenty years ago, showing the Kaiser in the costume of a sovereign of The Thousand and One Nights, arriving in Jerusalem by same road that Allenby travelled. Underwood.

This mysterious figure is not an advance spring model. Whether for political reasons or to protect it, this statue of Catherine II of Russia, at Odessa, was wrapped with canvas. Underwood.

Rowing follows the flag—British officers hold a rowboat regatta on the Tigris, and nurses from one of the British field hospitals act as coxswains. Inter. Film.
