

Officers in training at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., using gas masks in intricate system of trenches.

© International Film

New York's own—the 308th Infantry marches through the city streets. The first division of the National Army to parade here. Tribune Service.

Surgeon A. J. McLaughlin, who has been in charge of the Public Health Service, Boston, has been recalled to Washington to become assistant surgeon general of the Public Health Service. © Paul Thompson

Rear Admiral John D. McDonald, who has just been appointed commandant of the New York navy yard. © Paul Thompson