

Thomas Riggs, Jr., a member of the Alaskan Engineering Commission, has been appointed Governor of the Territory of Alaska, to succeed Governor J. F. A Strong, who resigned. The position has been vacant since last fall.

© Harris & Ewing, Paul Thompson.

A French Alpine band plays our national anthem at a camp of the marines, and poilus come to salute while the civilians doff their hats.

Committee of Public Information, Underwood & Underwood.

Just as though they were in the real trenches on the Western front, these soldiers (formerly New York National Guardsmen) at Camp Wadsworth get their meals in the trenches they are using for training.

© Underwood & Underwood.

Boys at Camp Meade, Maryland, being trained in the Red Cross methods of transporting wounded without stretchers. They are here seen rescuing "wounded" comrades under fire and using their rifles meanwhile.

© International Film.

Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels going aboard the landship Recruit in Union Square.

© Underwood & Underwood.

The Second Battalion of the Ninth Coast Guard gave New York City an exhibition of how they would handle a riot in the streets. This photo shows them in hollow square formation ready for anything. Machine gunners deployed in front of the square control the street, while troopers with levelled rifles back them up. The soldiers on the side of the square are covering the windows.

© Underwood & Underwood.