

Japanese forces photographed in recent army manœuvres—Cavalry on parade.

General Otani, who was in charge of the army of the South in the grand army manœuvres. He was at one time President of the Military College. He was decorated in the Russo-Japanese War.

Japanese soldiers guarding and transporting the equipment of the aircraft corps

Japanese infantry on a practice march. Photos © K. Adachi.

General Akiyama (at the left) who commanded the army of the North in the manœuvres held recently. General Akiyama was decorated for his work in the Russo-Japanese War.