

Scene taken in the sport park of Amsterdam, where a military and sport meet was recently held. Prince Henry, the Consort of Queen Wilhelmina, with many ministers and generals attended and took part. © Theo. Moussault

- (1) Prince Henry.
- (2) Mr. Rambonnet, Minister of the Navy
- (3) Prime Minister Cort van der Linden.
- (4) Mr. van Aalst, president of the Netherlands Oversea Truss Company, in charge of all shipping from warring countries.
- (5) Mr. Bosboom, formerly Minister of War.
- (6) General Ophurst, in command of the fortifications of Amsterdam.
- (7) Mr. Hirschman, president of the Federated Football Clubs.

Dutch artillery at the military meet

© Theo. Moussault

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland visiting her navy, dressed in a special travelling costume designed by herself for such occasions. She is attended by one of her ladies in waiting and by officers of the cruiser "The Tromp," which is seen in the background. This boat was in New York Harbor a few months ago.

© Theo. Moussault

An Italian artillery barge in the Piave region. The protection for the guns is made to resemble the shore line as closely as possible.

© Gilman