

The bridge, resting on barrels, was constructed by British troops. Turkish trenches can be seen crowning the ridge and commanding the river.
British Official Underwood & Underwood.

King Alexander of Greece visiting the British sector on the Macedonian front. His Majesty arrives on the parade ground, accompanied by members of the British staff.
British Official Underwood & Underwood.

Italian cavalry patrol on the enemy frontier.
© Underwood & Underwood.

Egyptian Labor Corps, attached to the British army, unloading stores from surf boats at the wharf at Jaffa.
British Official Underwood.

Ready for the German offensive.
© International Film.