The Master Piano

THE Ampico Reproducing Piano is more than a mere instrument—it is music. Master of the world's pianistic genius, it contains within its superb casing the art of the great musicians. You have but to touch a lever to command music, such as would cost you thousands to duplicate on the concert stage. To your home life the Ampico adds the perfecting touch of exquisite music.

Period Designs to harmonize with your surroundings will be submitted on request. The Ampico is unique, in that its perfection of design permits its installation in the Grand, without changing the graceful architecture of the casing. Nor is there the unsightly box of mechanism that is found in other instruments.

YOU are cordially invited to attend a private demonstration in the Ampico Studios. The great classics, operatic selections, popular songs and smart dance music, all await your hearing.
