

The great Labor Day parade on Fifth Avenue—a genuine "Win-the-War" demonstration in which 40,000 workers participated. —Underwood & Underwood.

The G. A. R. is still on deck, spry and full of enthusiasm. This picture a recent parade in Portland, Oregon, when six thousand veterans marched.

This photograph shows the Japanese Prince Imperial riding through the streets of Tokio, on his way to pay a visit to his father, the Emperor. He is escorted by cavalry of the Imperial Guard Division. In the oval above is the future Empress of Nippon, Naga-ko, Princess Kuni, whose betrothal to the Prince Imperial has recently been announced. —Adachi.

King Alphonso of Spain. In the picture at the top of the page he is seen on a favorite mount, on a bear-hunting expedition. Below that we see his majesty again, this time aboard his yacht upon the occasion of a recent Spanish regatta. —Underwood & Underwood.

Lieutenant René Fonck, French ace. Eight months ago we published his picture, when he promised to succeed Guynemer as France's premier ace. Since January Fonck has brought down 50 German planes.

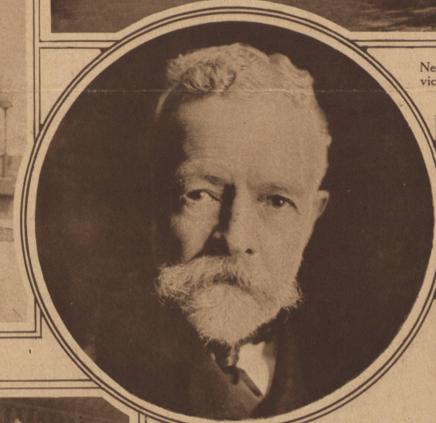

Mr. and Mrs. Enrico Caruso.

Mrs. Barrington Moore, on the Cliff Promenade at Newport. © J. de Siretchi.

Newport's al fresco fête in the interest of service men's entertainment. © J. de Siretchi.

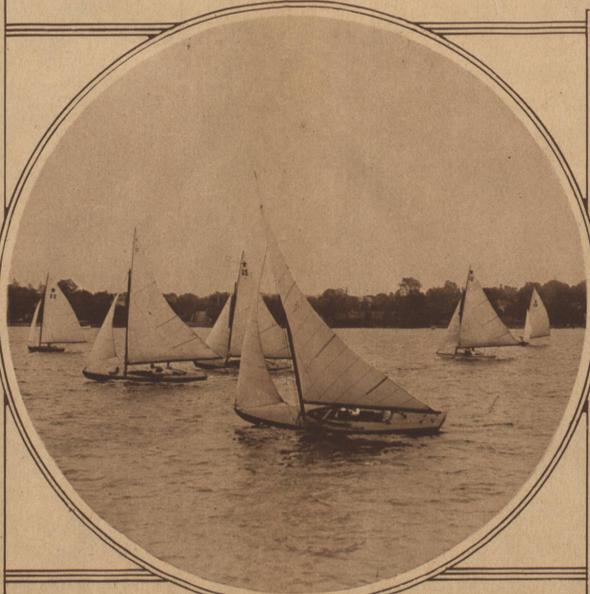

Henry Cabot Lodge, who has just been made Republican leader of the Senate.

Jeannette Rankin, defeated in the Senatorial primaries in Montana.

At the Pelham Bay Training Camp. The fact that this sparring match is perfectly friendly doesn't prevent its having a good, vigorous punch. Judging by the interest with which the contestants are being observed, they are evenly matched and the outcome is wholly problematical. —Paul Thompson.

The start. The Bay Side Yacht Club goes in for thrills and new records. —Photo by Edwin Levick, N. Y.

A service held at St. Margaret's, Westminster, in commemoration of the fourth anniversary of the war. From right to left the men are: Lloyd George, Arthur J. Balfour, Bonar Law and Mr. Whitley. —Photo by International.

A group of Pershing's veterans in New York, about to sit down to a banquet prepared in their honor. —Underwood & Underwood.