

Paris Makes the Wilson Ovation a Continuous Performance

General Pershing and Mr. Lansing exchanging a few words on the doorstep of the Murat Palace.
© Underwood & Underwood.

President and Mrs. Wilson back in Paris again after the brief but momentous visit to England.
Press Illustrating Service.

(Right) An interesting study of two great Presidents, taken in Paris before Mr. Wilson's departure for Rome.
Press Illustrating Service.

The spacious Place de la Concorde isn't big enough to hold all the Parisians who are eager to come out and cheer President Wilson

Press Illustrating Service.