

ARE YOU?

Of course you are. Everybody is. Only there are about a million methods. The pictures on this page show a few of them as they are indulged in by well-known singers.

Photos by Press Illustrating Service.

This is Clara Clemens, daughter of Mark Twain. Do you know what is the matter? Why, she's horrified to find that her maid has placed her shoes higher than her head!

Do you see this ring on Mabel Garrison's little finger? It's a magic ring, and she simply won't sing without it.

One of her dear friends offers Anna Case a delightful little knife. But think what might happen! She would not take it for worlds.

The thirteenth of the month? This will never do. Marguerita Sylva refuses to make any engagements for so unlucky a date.

The only infallible way to read your future is to study the chance leaves in a cup of tea—at least, so Claudia Muzio firmly testifies.

Frieda Hempel has lots of interesting superstitions. For instance, she always steps onto the stage with her left foot first. She wears flowers on the left side, and even likes to place a jewelled charm on her left ankle. It's sure to bring her luck.