

Ex.-Sec. McAdoo, new counsel for the movies "Big 5" at a salary of $100,000 a year, perhaps. "Doug" does look a trifle anxious.
Press Illustrating.

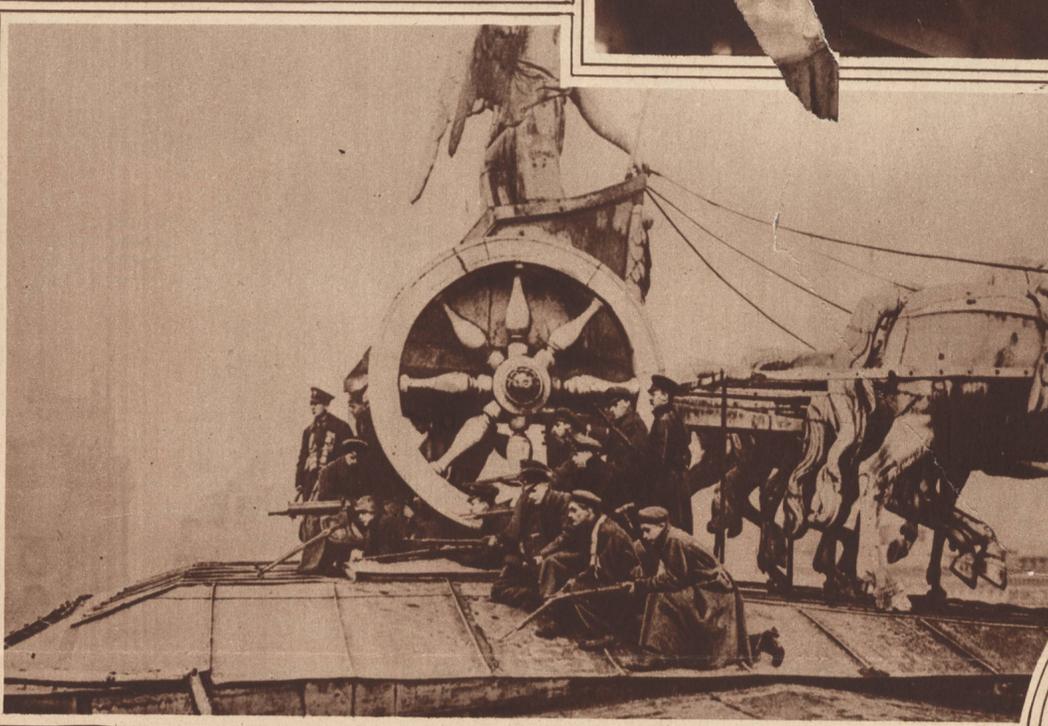

Lieut. Fred A. Tillman brought home unusual honors—the Legion of Honor, the Croix de Guerre and the D. S. C. Lieut. Tillman is the son of Representative Tillman, of Arkansas.
Paul Thompson.

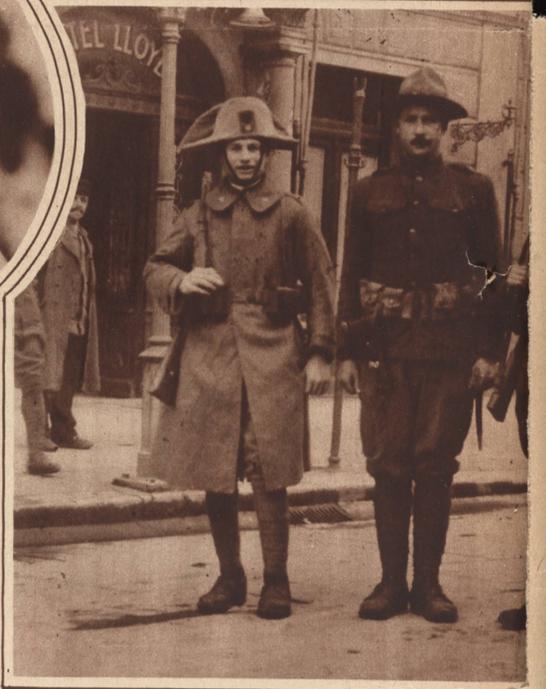

Left—Dr. E. R. Root, famous apiculturist of Southern California, declares that bees are kept so busy in all-year-round California that they haven't time to sting.
Gilliams Service.

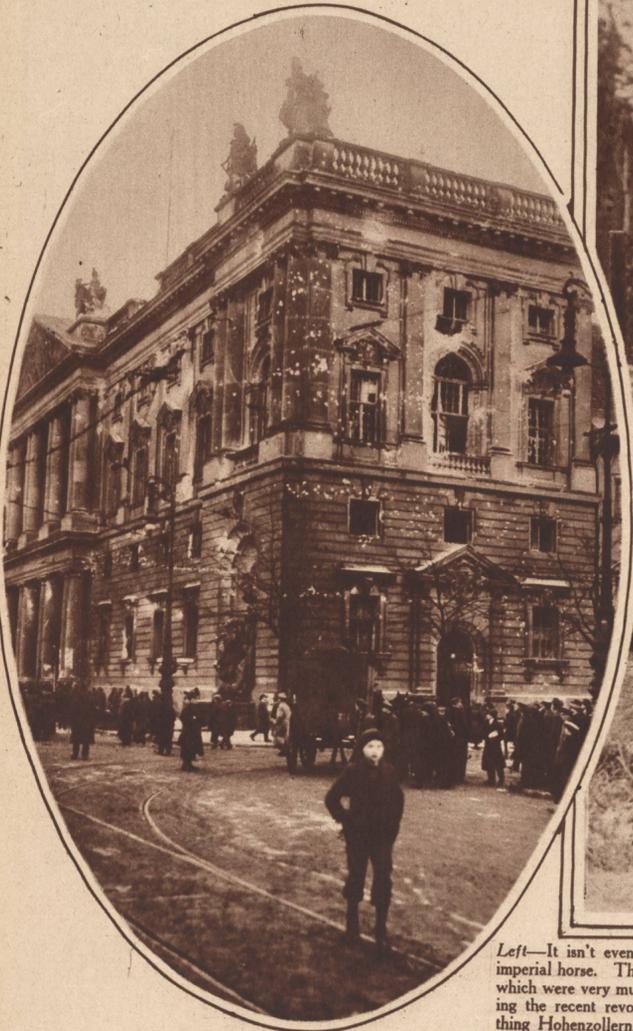

Another popular belief—giant skyscrapers of Los Angeles at 8. Looking down from the top of the B. & O. Tower toward the city.

German government troops, during the recent revolution in Berlin, on top of the Brandenburgtor, the great gate from the Tiergarten into Unter den Linden. They have set up a machine gun under the famous "Siegewagen."
Underwood & Underwood.

M. P. in four languages—French, Italian, British and Yank. Italy and the Slavic nations, is to be decided at the Peace Conference.

Left—It isn't even safe these days to be an imperial horse. The Kaiser's gorgeous stables, which were very much battered by gunfire during the recent revolt in Berlin against everything Hohenzollern.
Underwood & Underwood.

Above—Perhaps the first photograph to appear in this country from the Siberian front. A French soldier and an American doughboy digging a grave together at Archangel.
Press Illustrating.

