Granite shaft, first memorial in New York City to the heroic dead of the Great War, to be erected by Local Board 2 at 139th Street and Third Avenue, The Bronx.

Above, to left—H. M. S. Vindictive, lying in the entrance to Ostend Harbor, which she once so valiantly blocked. When raised again by the Allies she was found stripped of all removable metal by the Germans. In these days of peace Ostend fishermen ply their trade under the shadow of her battle-scarred hull.
