

these great masterpieces recording the sense of height and distance as only one who has experienced actual flight and conflict could record them, and a thrill with the spirit of battle in the air.

Lieutenant Farré, the artist, was in Buenos Ayres when the war broke out. Returning at once to France, for many months he shared the common dangers and trials of his comrades in the flying corps. Out of his experience came

The Conquered Flier

By Lieutenant Henri Farré
 Observateur-Bombardier au Premier Groupe d'Escadrille de Bombardement