

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

The New York City Hotel Men's Association will give their annual Supper Dance at the Commodore next Wednesday evening, May 7th. This is a good fellowship affair where the generous hospitality of the hotel men asserts itself in splendid fashion.

There could be no dance without the ladies, of course, so they will be in evidence, and they are promised right now the time of their lives.

But, men, don't wait until the last minute to make reservations of your tables. Call up the Commodore today or tomorrow, or on Tuesday morning at the latest, telling the management how many will be in your party.

You will get a table—and it will be held for you, for our friend John McE. Bowman is very particular to do what he says he will do. He is making the Commodore a fine meeting place for friendly, sociable affairs of this nature.

I am patterning after this Napoleon of the Hotel Industry to the extent of my ability—and I am glad to say that the Belleclaire Hotel and the Bayside Golf and Country Club, which has been added to my family, have taken on a great many of the charming qualities which have made Mr. Bowman's chain of hotels so popular.

I think maybe that I have just a little bit of an edge on Friend Bowman on the good cooking which has made so many friends for the Belleclaire and which will make the Bayside Golf and Country Club a very popular eating place.

Proprietor.
