Courtesy of Anderson Art Galleries

"Going to the Fair of Salamanca"

By Carlos Vasquez

This painting is one of a collection of modern Spanish paintings sent by the Spanish government to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco, 1915. The artist is a resident of Barcelona and one of the most popular of living Spanish artists. He was decorated with the Grand Cross of the King of Spain and was awarded Gold Medal at Madrid, Gold Medal, San Francisco, 1915; Gold Medal at Santiago, 1916.