

A charming camera landscape painting—looking from Mount Ellen over the wooded hills of Vermont's Green Mountains, exquisitely patterned with sun and shade.

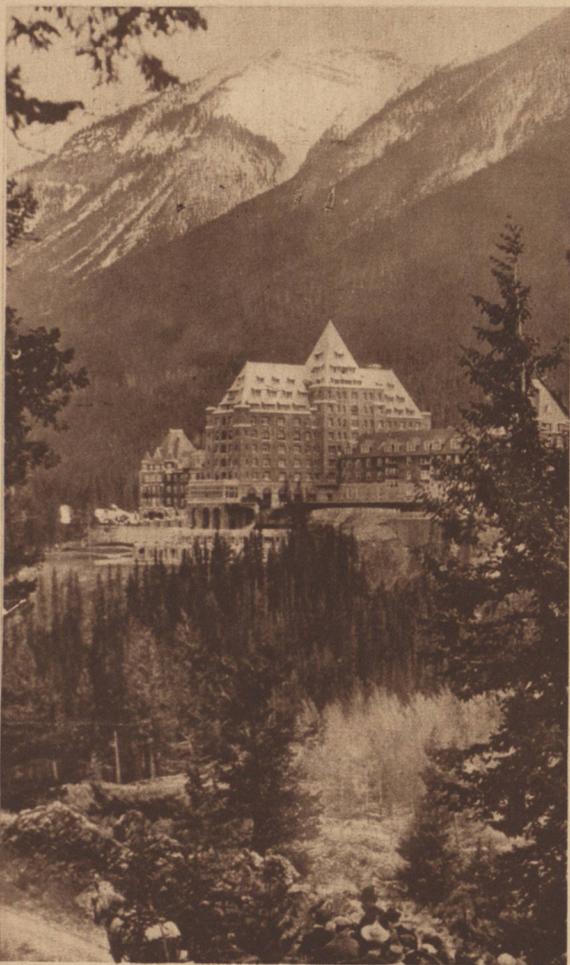

The "Lady of the Lake," elfin spirit on the quiet shore of Lake Louise, in the Canadian Rockies, the encircling mountains a magnificent back drop for any stage.

One of Mother Earth's greatest masterpieces, overwhelming in its splendor and immensity—the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River, its sheer cliffs and fantastic formations painted with every color in the rainbow and ever-changing with the play of light and shadow.

The churning Lachine Rapids of the St. Lawrence River, with the intrepid "Rapid King" steaming her way from Niagara to the sea.

Like a storied castle in the Italian Alps is the Banff Springs Hotel, the forests of the Canadian Rockies crowding to its very doors.

The Pacific Northwest-National Parks

Alaska

The Great West offers attractions, pleasures and scenic wonders unexcelled by any other region of the world, in the Pacific Northwest, the magnificent National Parks, the Land of the Midnight Sun, California, the Rockies, etc.

Our Tours to the Great West have, for many years, offered the same superiority in all respects—personnel, leadership, hotels and trains, and the entire arrangements. Leisurely travel in small, congenial groups, with experienced and tactful tour-leaders, gives the individuality and privacy of "independent" travel without its responsibilities.

The Tours leave frequently during June, July and August, visiting the Pacific Northwest—the Yellowstone, Glacier, Mount Rainier, Yosemite and Rocky Mountain National Parks—California Resorts—the Grand Canyon—Canadian and Colorado Rockies—Alaska, the Land of the Midnight Sun.
