AFTER TWO YEARS of strenuous war times America needs a vacation—and turns naturally to this premier American playground. From every metropolitan district will come a stream of rest and pleasure seekers to recuperate and refresh 'mid the wild and romantic scenic beauties of the Vermont hills and valleys.

Not too far away from the heart of things to be easily accessible; not too distant to abound in every luxury and convenience the cities themselves afford, yet possessing every primeval attraction that Nature knows, this delightful region invites you to a vacation unforgettable.

Before you plan a Summer tour or vacation write for any of the following free booklets about Vermont:
