"The Unconquered"

By G. Glenn Newell

Purchased for the permanent collection in the Joseph G. Butler, Jr., Art Museum in Youngstown, Ohio.

That unfaltering spirit which is France! In the face of the enemy her women, with patient and limitless courage, crept forth from their broken villages by night to till their fields.

Sketches for the picture were made in France by the artist.