Le-San BLOUSES

A Sextette
Of Aristocratic Silk Blouses for Fall

For genuinely uncommon blouse-fashions, wrought with exquisite care to the last charming detail, no makers have won a more enviable reputation than the Harry H. Levy Manufacturing Corporation.

The half dozen selected for illustration are no lovelier than any other half dozen. Each Georgette waist in this showing has its individual charm.

No 124 — Gray, navy, taupe, brown, mahogany.

No. 550—Flesh, white, black, brown, taupe, mahogany, navy, sunset.

No. 125—Navy, brown, taupe, gray, black, prune.

No. 114—Navy, bisque, black, taupe, brown, gray.

No. 166 — Navy, brown, black, taupe, white, bisque.

HARRY H. LEVY
MANUFACTURING CORPORATION
1270 Broadway New York

No. 913—White, flesh, bisque.

Fur Coats Grow More Sumptuous

For sheer luxurious beauty this season's fur wraps promise to set new records. Illustrated are four truly handsome garments, whose grace of draping and richness of pelt proclaim them the product of master furriers. Yet Clawson & Wilson furs have won a well-deserved reputation for moderateness of cost.

6065.—Finest quality Hudson Seal Coat, cut very full, with deep collar, cuffs, and border of fine Beaver. May also be had trimmed with Skunk or Squirrel.

6064.—Wonderfully lustrous Hudson Seal Dolman, with deep shawl collar and cuffs of extra quality Mink.

6018.—Handsome Beaver collar and cuffs trim this full-cut Coat of fine quality Hudson Seal.

5965.—Exquisite Mole Dolman, with ripple back and large collar. 34 inches long.

Our prestige is based on performance.

CLAWSON & WILSON COMPANY
38-40 West 32nd St. New York
Cleveland—Buffalo