HARRINGTON SMALL GRAND

Has Your Officer Hung Up His Coat?

© House & Garden

Are you faced with the exciting problem of buying everything for a new house at once—because the captain insisted on a wedding the very minute he was mustered out?

Here's a room to be happy in. The walls are butter-colored, the woodwork soft grey. The rag rugs are woody brown, and the black-grounded chintz grows the gayest of fruit and flowers all over one of those comfortable couches you can't keep away from. Let's not try! The fire fairly purrs "Tea." There are magazines on the table.

is in just proportion—that's first. Each piece of furniture is good in itself, from the tall Welsh dresser to the little Lancashire chairs. These things, with the lovely clean colour of the background, make a room to be remembered. But—not from one's check-stubs.

How did the owners of this house spell "home" so easily, so graciously? The room

House & Garden maintains a special department for the owners of the small house and the moderate income—with plans, pictures, prices attached. Try these next six numbers.

These 5 Issues of House & Garden for $1

(Six, if you mail the coupon now)

- September Autumn Furnishing
The new fabrics—how to choose a paper for the bedroom and decorate the hallway in relation to its connecting rooms—here's the positively everything from the signs of the Zodiac as decoration, to that modern living room that whisks into its tablecloth under your very eyes, and announces dinner. Furniture, crystal, lampshades—and a Pennsylvania farmhouse de luxe.
- October Fall Planting
Here comes the winter garden (no exotics, please) with directions in full for its success making. What bulbs to plant in the fall—how to make a rock garden—just which of the 675 houses are favorably considered by our friends of the air—and then the Fall Planting Tables, those invaluable pages that represent years of expert investigation.
- November House Planning
Are you building a new house? Then here's an article on getting together with the architect, another on collecting for building, a third that tells all about planning for the furniture to go in the various rooms of the new house. And a whole collection of little houses, each perfect of its kind.
- December Christmas House
What does Christmas mean to that house of yours? A new rug, perhaps? A chair or two that the living room has called for? A floor lamp? All the things that the house wants are in this number, together with the newest ways to hang the holly and dress the tree and plant Christmas in the heart of the dinner table.
- January Furniture Number
Every year our American master-craftsmen give us something lovelier—every year the importers bring in new quaintnesses. The best of these things you'll find in the January number.
- February House Fittings Number
The February number has the predestined bit of glass, the one bedstead you can't afford to do without, the lampshade that makes all the difference in the world. And if by any chance the thing you seek for isn't there—and you can't even seem to know what it ought to look like—write the Information Service.
