

Left—General Pershing salutes the famous old Liberty Bell in Independence Hall during his triumphant three-hour visit to Philadelphia a week ago Friday. The General was presented with a diamond-studded medal inscribed "He Answered the Call of the Bell for Wider Liberty and Larger Hope." International.

Marshal Foch says au revoir to General Pershing at Brest. "Recalling with emotion the hours we have lived together—some of them full of anguish, some glorious—I am struck hard in the heart in passing with you the last moments of your stay among us. On your arrival you said: 'Lafayette, we are here.' Allow a French soldier of to-day to return thanks to you." International.

A recent and unusually attractive picture of Queen Victoria of Spain and her six handsome children taken at King Alfonso's Magdalena Castle. Underwood.

A respite from speeches of welcome—H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, surrounded by Indian guides and woodsmen, on a three-day hunting and fishing trip through the Nipigon Lake district of Ontario. Central News.

Herbert C. Hoover, Director General of the Inter-Allied Relief Organization, wears a happy smile on his return to New York from months of hard work in Europe. Paul Thompson.

The Mayor of Honolulu serves Secretary of the Navy Daniels a drink of cocoanut milk and some Hawaiian poi at the dedication of the new drydock at the Pearl Harbor Naval Station. Underwood.

Left—Robt. I. Simpson, Ill. A. C. (second from right), wins the 120-yard hurdles in 15 1-5 seconds at the National A. A. U. championships in Philadelphia. Paul Thompson.

In Columbus, a straw; in St. Paul, a silk, and in Bismarck, a fedora—the President seems to be well equipped with a variety of headwear on his remarkable speaking tour of the West in support of the peace treaty. Underwood-International (2)

Caruso pauses for the photographer to frame him in the door of his limousine. The great tenor returned from his Italian vacation forty pounds heavier. Ledger Photo.