

Two hundred and fifty thousand spectators see Gaston Chevrolet, the French speed king, capture the 150-mile auto championship of America at the Sheephead Bay track a week ago yesterday. He established a new record of 1 hour, 22 minutes, 34 1-5 seconds. I. F. S. U. A. V.

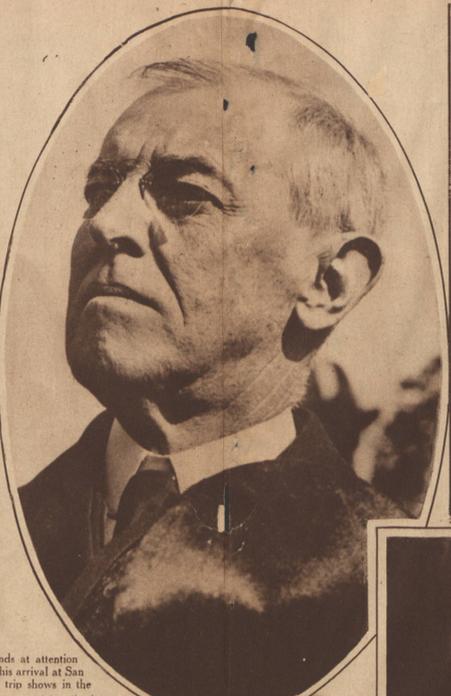

Right—Ralph Mulford's car after he and his mechanic had a narrow escape from death when they blew a tire at 110 miles an hour. Waterman.

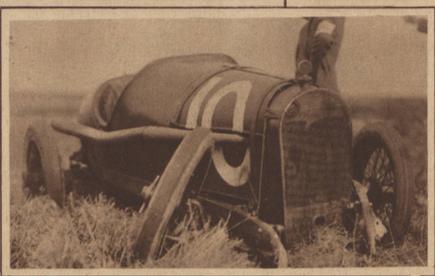

S. Harrison Thompson, the 21-year-old Princeton athlete who won the Nat. A. A. U. all-round championship a week ago at Pershing Field, Jersey City. Thompson compiled 6,133 1/4 points in the ten events. He is shown winning the high jump, clearing the bar at a height of 5 feet 10 1/2 inches. Paul Thompson.

This cow has come the nearest to jumping over the moon. It is a prize calf held by its owner, Jim Jeffries, former heavyweight champion, and was recently sent from his ranch to Los Angeles by airplane. I. F. S.

Right—President Wilson stands at attention during the national anthem on his arrival at San Francisco. The strain of his trip shows in the deepened lines of his face. International.

Alfred W. Lawson, owner of America's largest commercial aeroplane, and Miss Felicity Buranelli, sister of the plane's engineer, in the passenger compartment of the plane on its arrival in Washington after a flight from New York. Paul Thompson.

Twenty-two-year-old Elsie Wilson, a British girl who earned her passage from England by acting as coal passer on the transport 'Plattsburg. She wears the regulation sailor's uniform and shakes a wicked shovel. International.

Left—Mrs. Harry T. Peters, of New York, taking the jumps on Delbeck in Class 16 at the annual Piping Rock Horse Show a week ago yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Peters are members of a dozen other exclusive New York Clubs in addition to Piping Rock. Underwood.

Perfect form, both in figure and in pose. A pretty government lass snapped at the instant of taking off from the diving board during an athletic carnival at the famous swimming pool in Washington's tidal basin. This section of Potomac Park is an athletic centre for the government departments. Underwood.

"Wonder what a seventeen-months-old baby (thinks about?) Here is little Ruth Briggs herself, the youthful star of Briggs's newest motion picture comedies, wondering whether or not to go 30-30 on a piece of toast with a Russian sheepdog. Paul Thompson.

The latest picture received in this country of Field Marshal Allenby, photographed in Paris on his way home to London, where Britain's gallant commander in the East was given a tremendous popular welcome. Paul Thompson.

H. R. H. the Prince of Wales discusses the relative merits of chapeaux with a French-Canadian guide outside the tent which was his simple abode during a recent hunting and fishing expedition in the wilds of Ontario. Judging by the costume of His Highness, black flies and mosquitoes must have left the north woods. Central News.

A needle through the flesh of her arm neither draws blood nor causes any pain to Mme. Komako Kimura, teacher of a philosophical Japanese religion based on concentrated will power by which she hopes and knows that she can cure any disease. Mme. Kimura is now in New York to offer her services free in obstinate cases. Press Illustration.

Right—This German milkman is poling his dairy product from his farm in the suburbs of Berlin down the Spreewald to his customers in the German capital. Gillman's Service.

Yesterday he was a hero of Belleau Wood; to-day he is a beggar on Fifth Avenue. This doughboy lost a leg in the war and finds the Avenue's sympathetic shoppers his only means of support. International.

Captain Bertram Hayes of the giant transport liner Olympic, which carried millions across the ocean during the war, takes his first vacation in years on the farm of H. W. Vickers, of the British mission, at Newfoundland, N. J. Captain Hayes was decorated with the D. S. O. by King George for sinking a U-boat. Underwood.

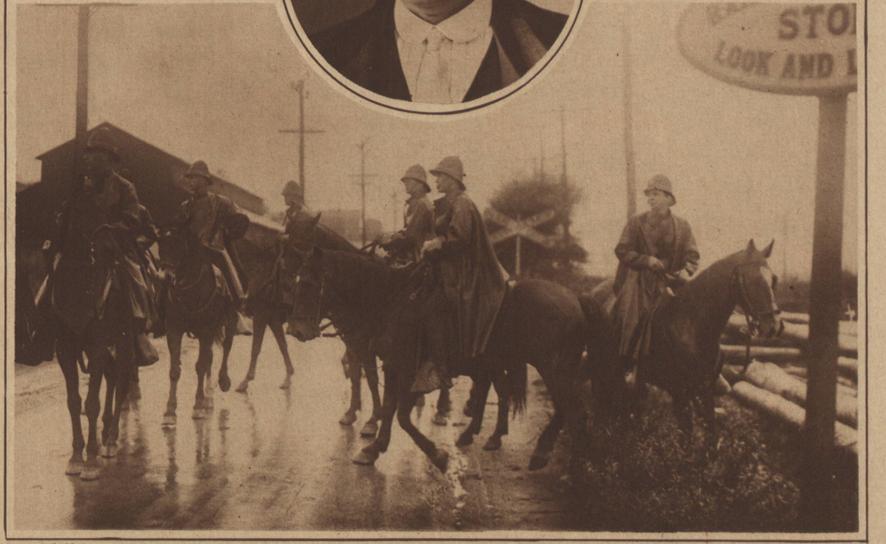

Niagara Falls from the clouds is truly a gorgeous spectacle. The tempestuous air currents that arise from the thundering cataract make this a good testing ground for aeroplanes—at least according to the aviators from the Curtiss factory in Buffalo. The final test is a thrilling tail spin directly into the mist arising from the foot of the falls. The picture clearly shows American Falls at the left, Goat Island in the centre and Horseshoe Falls on the right. A wing of the plane from which this most unusual photograph was taken shows on the right. International.

Vice-President Thomas Marshall, Mrs. Marshall and their adopted son, Marcin, enjoying a roller chair ride on the boardwalk at Atlantic City. Marcin is three years old and was an underling founding when the Marshalls adopted him. Press Illustration.

Here's a new one of "Pop" Geers, premier of all jockeys of any age and "Grand Old Man of the Turf," who has won hundreds of races (and is still winning them) in his more than fifty years with the ponies. Underwood.

A half dozen of Pennsylvania's finest, the mounted state constabulary, on strike duty outside of Pittsburgh. Part of their equipment consists of a sawed-off riot carbine which is slung on the right side of their sturdy little mounts. Above in circle—John F. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the conference committee of the twenty-four unions engaged in the steel industry, who says "It simmers down to the question, is E. H. Gary bigger than President Wilson?" International.