

Hy. S. Watson's deft brush bids us pack our kit and hit the trail for the great outdoors

SHORE BIRDS
THE WHITE TAIL DEER

PROBABLY no other artist combines to such an unusual degree a genuine love of nature, years of practical outdoor experience in the world of sport and a mastery of technical detail as does Hy. S. Watson, editor of "Field and Stream." To him and the publication he represents The Tribune is indebted for the privilege of reproducing these four true-to-life canvasses of the great outdoors.

CAROLINA QUAIL
DUCKS