

King Albert (in stern of rowboat) arrives at West Point from New York by seaplane and goes ashore to visit the Academy and review the students. International.

Four Pictures Showing High Lights of King Albert's Week-End Stop-Over in New York on His Return From the West.

Accompanied by Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, King Albert bears a memorial wreath up the hill of the little cemetery at Oyster Bay, which he placed on the grave of Theodore Roosevelt. International.

Right—Newly-elected president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, Mr. Frank Hedley, who declares himself in favor of a flexible transit fare based on earnings. Underwood.

Left—A new photograph of Mrs. Oliver Harriman, chairman of the Women's Council of the League of Nations Association. U. & U.

Columbia University honors King Albert with the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. The photograph shows His Majesty, flanked by President Nicholas Murray Butler and Professor Barclay Parsons, leaving the Library. International.

King Albert and members of his party visit the Bronx Zoo. The completeness and size of the famous gardens impressed him greatly. Here he is before the bear pit. International.

The Treasury Department in Washington has a store of its own, where employees can buy most everything 'cept sugar. It has 17,000 possible customers and is helping much to reduce the h. c. of l. Paul Thompson.

To meet the great demand for pennies used to pay off small luxury taxes the Philadelphia Mint is working day and night manufacturing pennies. It is turning them out at the rate of seventy-five million a month. The pennies are counted by weight, and here is the official weigher and his scale. Ledger Photo.

Right—A general view of the Roosevelt Memorial exercises held in front of the Public Library a week ago yesterday. Here the forty-seventh star was sewed on the memorial flag, which the Boy Scouts carried across the State. The forty-eighth and last star was sewed on at Sagamore Hill on Monday, where the flag was placed on Roosevelt's grave. Paul Thompson.

Mr. Winston Churchill, England's Secretary of War, having sold his $10,000 Rolls-Royce, has taken to flivvering. Here is a bow view of the famous bus and a rear view of its famous owner. Underwood.