HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

Old friends like the Belleclaire because whenever they visit us they see old familiar faces at the desk, at the telephone exchange, among the bell boys, on the elevators and in the dining room. In fact, they see the same people year after year all through the hotel.

Why, the two Toms in the dining room have been here so long that they are considered by the guests as being quite as important as the hotel itself, and well they may be, because their smiles and greetings are worth coming miles to see.

We all try here to make everybody feel at home—so come along whenever you want to, and join the happy party that always assembles in this hotel.

Incidentally, if you want to sleep well and dine well, and be away from disturbances of every kind, just come here. ROBERT D. BLACKMAN, Proprietor.

MISSSES' "Betty Wales" Dress

Made exclusively for Franklin Simon & Co.

May lend its gracious presence to any of the informal occasions of Winter

BY reason of its unassuming smartness, this Betty Wales velveteen frock in brown, navy or black, makes its appeal to Misses, and by reason of the round collarless bodice and intriguing hip draperies, it lays claim to modishness. As a touch of color, and to add becomingness, a novelty silk braid interwoven with chenille serves as a tasteful trimming.
