

for Christmas!

What a perfectly glorious gift. BlueBird!—solving forever the greatest problem, the greatest burden of homework.

An hour or so of a morning and the week's washing vanishes. On the line by nine, without rubbing or puddling—without work, without expense, without wear on the clothes. Every garment clean, yet delicately handled.

Such is the BlueBird way. Isn't it amazing to realize that now "the washing" is only a source of gladness—a delightful means of unlimited cleanliness.

See BlueBird soon. Arrange with the dealer for a free demonstration. Ask him about the monthly payment plan. Write us for the beautiful BlueBird Book.
