

DELICIOUS SUEB
BY R. H. THOMPSON

Hayes's Secretary of the Navy Wants $40,000 from the Bankers.

CLAIMS SHARP PRACTICE. Bought Stock in a Cattle Company at Jesse Seligman's Advice.

IT HAS NO MARKET VALUE. He Now Employs Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll to Try and Get His Money Back for Him.

The banking firm of Seligman Brothers has a lawsuit on its hands. The plaintiff is venerable Richard W. Thompson, of Terra Haute, Ind., former Secretary of the Navy, and familiarly known as "Dick" Thompson.

A Close and Trusted Friend. One of Mr. Thompson's closest friends at that time was the late Jesse Seligman, head of the house.

No Stock in His Name. He then learned, so he claims, that all the stock stood in his name, and that so far as the company's books were concerned, he was unknown.

Looking Around. To see where advertising pays? No place compared with the Sunday Journal's "Want" Supplement.

THREE SAVED LUEBERT. Continued from First Page.

Followed; for elviction and death penalty. Helekhoff, Bord, Bibby, Mahoney, Behlendorf, Brown, Shaw, Frazee and Fowles for acquittal, Barlev, Holshard and Barber.

No Change in Thirty-eight Hours. "How do you stand—numerically, I mean, not individually?" queried the Court.

Then the rest of the jurors, Luetgert and the jurors, returned to their rooms, and twenty minutes later they returned to court again and presented this report.

FOREMAN HECKHOFF. Luetgert walked to his cell with a light step. To-night he made the following statement and swore to it before a notary.

To the Public. The result of my trial, going to-day, is a victory for me because of the disagreement of the jury, but I am very much disappointed and surprised that the jury did not bring in a verdict of not guilty.

BEAUTIFUL SKIN. Soft, White Hands, with Shapely Nails, Luxuriant Hair, with Clean, Wholesome Scalp, professed by CUTICURA.

THE OCEANIC COMPANY, 27 MURRAY ST., NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK JOURNAL AND ADVERTISER. W. R. HEARST. Published Every Day in the Year.

TERMS-POSTAGE INCLUDED. For the United States (outside of New York City), Canada and Mexico.

Daily Edition (in Greater New York and Jersey City)..... One Cent Daily Edition (outside of Greater New York and Jersey City, and on Trains)..... Two Cents Evening Edition..... One Cent Sunday..... Five Cents

THE NEW YORK JOURNAL IN LONDON, ENGLAND, CAN BE PURCHASED AT ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PLACES: The International Publishing Co., 1 Northumberland Ave., W. C. Low's Exchange, 3 Northumberland Ave., W. C. Smith, Ainslie & Co., Ormonde House, 28 Newcastle St., Strand.

JOHN WANAMAKER Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co., Broadway, 4th ave., 9th and 10th sts.

FILLIBUSTERING MUST STOP.

Continued from First Page. tomorrow for a discussion of the answer to General Woodford's note.

Premier Sagasta has had this draft for two days, and during this time has been shut up at his home on the pretext of illness. He has really been studying the answer to General Woodford's note and working on it. His table is covered with documents from the Minister of Foreign Affairs.

The Silver Heels' expedition has resulted in some alterations in the Spanish answer to the note of the American Minister. The answer, as stated above, will almost certainly contain more or less of a declaration of the true attitude of the Spanish Government towards filibustering expeditions from the United States.

Mrs. Woodford's Arrival. The Silver Heels' incident does not seem to have frightened Minister Woodford so far as bringing ladies of his family to Madrid is concerned. He has taken apartments for them at the Hotel de Roma, and expects them to arrive from Biarritz on Saturday.

The Herald says to-night: "We are assured that the Spanish answer to the note is very energetic in meaning and in form, although worded in very courteous language. Premier Sagasta is, however, of the opinion that it is better not to send it until Captain-General Blanco reaches Havana and informs the Government about the general situation in Cuba."

Cabinet Meets at Palace. The Cabinet Council to-day was presided over by the Queen, as is the case every Thursday. Neither Premier Sagasta nor the Minister of Marine attended, on the pretext of illness. The Minister of Foreign Affairs spoke lengthily about the American Government's conduct in connection with the Silver Heels expedition and the attitude of the Spanish Government in this affair.

Spanish Stocks Decline. Spanish stocks declined to-day on account of the Silver Heels incident. General Weyler's Movements. General Weyler is expected back about the middle of November, as, according to present arrangements, he leaves Havana on October 30. He will probably reside for some time in the Balearic Islands, apart from the turmoil of politics on the mainland. The Government bears him no resentment. But a good deal of dissatisfaction exists among private persons at the reports of his conduct in connection with the campaign. The reports of his not returning are ridiculous.

Perhaps you may hear a strain of "Mary Jane" on the street as it is sung in the "stranger in New York" by Sadie Martinot, but in next Sunday's Journal you can get the whole song, words and music, four verses, if you order the paper in time from your newsdealer. Get it in the morning, because there will be none left in the afternoon.

L.A.W. AFTER DRIVER REED. Chairman Rosenfeld, Aided by the Journal, Hopes to Get Justice for Mrs. Blanchard.

The officers of the League of American Women have the matter of the running down of Mrs. Blanchard by Cabman Reed under advisement and will take early action.

Mr. Louis Rosenfeld, the chairman of the Committee of Rights and Privileges, has the case in charge, and brought it up at a meeting of his committee last night. It was decided to thoroughly investigate the accident, and, if witnesses to corroborate Mrs. Blanchard's story can be found, the men who ran her down will be vigorously prosecuted.

Mr. Rosenfeld was seen yesterday and explained the plans of the L. A. W. "Of course," he said, "we don't want to go into court with a case we can't prove. But if we can find the proof, we will make trouble for those responsible for Mrs. Blanchard's injuries."

"This seems to be a pretty good case to fight to the end. I have seen Mrs. Blanchard and heard her story, and have talked with Policeman Ross, who witnessed the accident. Their stories agree perfectly. 'Accident,' by the way, isn't the right word. It looks like a brutal outrage."

"This sort of thing is getting too common. Gay and sportive gentlemen, whether with or without juries, seem to think they can hum bachelors with impunity. The L. A. W. is determined to make an example of the first man against whom a case can be made. The Journal has the thanks of all who believe in the stand it has taken in the matter, and I hope we will have its further assistance in making our streets safe for everybody."

Mr. F. J. Blanchard, the injured woman's brother-in-law, advertised in the Journal for witnesses to the accident. He has been from several, and has made appointments to meet them.

He told a reporter for the Journal yesterday that he would not rest until he had brought Peters and Reed to justice. "It wasn't an accident," he said, "it was a case of criminal and malicious negligence."

Mrs. Blanchard is recovering rapidly, but is still unable to leave her home.

BEAUTIFUL SKIN. Soft, White Hands, with Shapely Nails, Luxuriant Hair, with Clean, Wholesome Scalp, professed by CUTICURA.

THE OCEANIC COMPANY, 27 MURRAY ST., NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK JOURNAL AND ADVERTISER. W. R. HEARST. Published Every Day in the Year.

TERMS-POSTAGE INCLUDED. For the United States (outside of New York City), Canada and Mexico.

Daily Edition (in Greater New York and Jersey City)..... One Cent Daily Edition (outside of Greater New York and Jersey City, and on Trains)..... Two Cents Evening Edition..... One Cent Sunday..... Five Cents

TWO CHURCH WEDDINGS.

At That of Miss Eaton to J. H. Cotton the Edifice Was Decked with Chrysanthemums.

The wedding of Miss Grace Estelle Egbert and Charles H. Storm, took place last night in the Marble Collegiate Church, Fifth avenue and Twenty-ninth street. Rev. John Louis Clark, one of the assistant clergymen, performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock. Miss Virginia A. Blake, of Staten Island, was the maid of honor. Miss Emma Parkinson, Miss May Steele, Miss Nellie Truss and Miss Emily Hammond were the bridesmaids. George W. Storm acted as best man to his brother. The Messrs Thomas D. Platt, W. Howard Bartle, Edward W. Allen and James S. Love, were the ushers. Joseph Ackerman, the blind organist from the blind school, furnished the music.

After the church ceremony there was a reception given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Egbert, at No. 49 Lexington avenue. Mazzetti served an elaborate supper. Among other's present were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene G. Blockford, Mrs. Egbert, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Egbert, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, William Grayson and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Parkinson.

One of the first "chrysanthemum weddings" of the season, was that of Miss Grace Eaton and Joseph Hall Cotton, celebrated last night. Chrysanthemums and exotics adorned the interior of the Presbyterian Church of the Parsonage, on West One Hundred and Thirtieth street, near Fifth avenue. Rev. Charles J. Young, the pastor, performed the ceremony. A reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Llewellyn Eaton, No. 28 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street, followed. The newly married pair will live in Boston.

WHIPPING POST FOR WOMEN. Magistrate Kudlich Tells a Drunken Mother She Ought to Be There.

"There should be a whipping post for such women as you," said Magistrate Kudlich at Yorkville Court yesterday morning to Hannah Hanflaux, thirty-one years old, of No. 538 Tenth avenue, who, for the second time this week, was arraigned with a four-month-old baby in her arms, charged with intoxication.

The Judge arraigned with her on Tuesday morning when she was first arraigned and out of pity discharged her. She then promised him not to drink again. When she was led before the Judge yesterday her appearance showed that she had been on a protracted spree. Her face was bloated from the drink and her eyes were heavy and bloodshot. The baby looked wan and sickly and was clad in rags. It was then that the Magistrate spoke of the whipping post and sent her to jail for five days.

Women's Wages to Be Cut. Members of the Women's Branch of the Cloakmakers' Union, 1,500 in number, are up in arms against an attempt of the employers to reduce their wages. When they work their strikes the agreements which the contractors signed applied to them as well as to the men.

The Women's Branch will be held on Saturday evening at No. 236 Broome street to strengthen their organization and enroll new members, so as to be able to resist the proposed cut in wages. A strike of one hundred cloakmakers took place yesterday in the shops of the company at No. 89 Grand street. An advance in wages is demanded.

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What is the real sentiment of the workmen in regard to your campaign?" "Labor is for me, just as it was in 1888. I shall get the larger part of the labor vote. I have no fears of the result. In regard to the charge that I have employed non-union men in building my house at Fort Hamilton, it is too absurd to talk about. If there is any necessity for facts to be given, William A. Carley, of Fort Hamilton, a union man and a good workman, contracted to build my house. He employed the men, and I suppose an employed union man like himself. Tammany has a lot of so-called labor representatives—politicians by profession—to circulate falsehoods. I can

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What is the real sentiment of the workmen in regard to your campaign?" "Labor is for me, just as it was in 1888. I shall get the larger part of the labor vote. I have no fears of the result. In regard to the charge that I have employed non-union men in building my house at Fort Hamilton, it is too absurd to talk about. If there is any necessity for facts to be given, William A. Carley, of Fort Hamilton, a union man and a good workman, contracted to build my house. He employed the men, and I suppose an employed union man like himself. Tammany has a lot of so-called labor representatives—politicians by profession—to circulate falsehoods. I can

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every wrapper.

This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA" which has been used in the homes of the mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought on the and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company, of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

March 8, 1897. Samuel Pitcher, D.

Do Not Be Deceived. Do not endanger the life of your child by accepting a cheap substitute which some druggists may offer you (because he makes a few more pennies on it), the ingredients of which even he does not know.

"The Kind You Have Always Bought" Bears the Fac-Simile Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

Insist on Having The Kind that Never Failed You.

THE OCEANIC COMPANY, 27 MURRAY ST., NEW YORK CITY.

NEW YORK JOURNAL AND ADVERTISER. W. R. HEARST. Published Every Day in the Year.

TERMS-POSTAGE INCLUDED. For the United States (outside of New York City), Canada and Mexico.

Daily Edition (in Greater New York and Jersey City)..... One Cent Daily Edition (outside of Greater New York and Jersey City, and on Trains)..... Two Cents Evening Edition..... One Cent Sunday..... Five Cents

THE NEW YORK JOURNAL IN LONDON, ENGLAND, CAN BE PURCHASED AT ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PLACES: The International Publishing Co., 1 Northumberland Ave., W. C. Low's Exchange, 3 Northumberland Ave., W. C. Smith, Ainslie & Co., Ormonde House, 28 Newcastle St., Strand.

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What is the real sentiment of the workmen in regard to your campaign?" "Labor is for me, just as it was in 1888. I shall get the larger part of the labor vote. I have no fears of the result. In regard to the charge that I have employed non-union men in building my house at Fort Hamilton, it is too absurd to talk about. If there is any necessity for facts to be given, William A. Carley, of Fort Hamilton, a union man and a good workman, contracted to build my house. He employed the men, and I suppose an employed union man like himself. Tammany has a lot of so-called labor representatives—politicians by profession—to circulate falsehoods. I can

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What is the real sentiment of the workmen in regard to your campaign?" "Labor is for me, just as it was in 1888. I shall get the larger part of the labor vote. I have no fears of the result. In regard to the charge that I have employed non-union men in building my house at Fort Hamilton, it is too absurd to talk about. If there is any necessity for facts to be given, William A. Carley, of Fort Hamilton, a union man and a good workman, contracted to build my house. He employed the men, and I suppose an employed union man like himself. Tammany has a lot of so-called labor representatives—politicians by profession—to circulate falsehoods. I can

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What is the real sentiment of the workmen in regard to your campaign?" "Labor is for me, just as it was in 1888. I shall get the larger part of the labor vote. I have no fears of the result. In regard to the charge that I have employed non-union men in building my house at Fort Hamilton, it is too absurd to talk about. If there is any necessity for facts to be given, William A. Carley, of Fort Hamilton, a union man and a good workman, contracted to build my house. He employed the men, and I suppose an employed union man like himself. Tammany has a lot of so-called labor representatives—politicians by profession—to circulate falsehoods. I can

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What is the real sentiment of the workmen in regard to your campaign?" "Labor is for me, just as it was in 1888. I shall get the larger part of the labor vote. I have no fears of the result. In regard to the charge that I have employed non-union men in building my house at Fort Hamilton, it is too absurd to talk about. If there is any necessity for facts to be given, William A. Carley, of Fort Hamilton, a union man and a good workman, contracted to build my house. He employed the men, and I suppose an employed union man like himself. Tammany has a lot of so-called labor representatives—politicians by profession—to circulate falsehoods. I can

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What is the real sentiment of the workmen in regard to your campaign?" "Labor is for me, just as it was in 1888. I shall get the larger part of the labor vote. I have no fears of the result. In regard to the charge that I have employed non-union men in building my house at Fort Hamilton, it is too absurd to talk about. If there is any necessity for facts to be given, William A. Carley, of Fort Hamilton, a union man and a good workman, contracted to build my house. He employed the men, and I suppose an employed union man like himself. Tammany has a lot of so-called labor representatives—politicians by profession—to circulate falsehoods. I can

GEORGE SURE HE WILL BE ELECTED.

He Says He Sees the Same Old Fire of the Campaign of '86.

THINKS TRACY IS MISTAKEN. The McKinley Vote Cuts No Figure To-day, McKinleyism Being Dead.

Henry George had this to say of the situation last night: "I see on every side a strong promise of success. There is the same old fire of the campaign of 1886 blazing everywhere. It will carry us to victory. The prospect is wonderfully encouraging. The campaign is making me stronger and younger every day."

"Mr. Waring was here this morning. Is he for you?" "Let him speak for himself. Our people think highly of him. His great work in keeping the city clean has impressed me most favorably."

"It is announced that Carter Harrison is coming from Chicago to speak for Tammany. Have you anything to say about it?" "It is only evidence of one corrupt machine getting help from another corrupt machine. If Carter Harrison can persuade anybody to vote for Tammany, let him do it. I never asked Mr. Harrison for aid, and never shall. But I can say that our friends in this campaign are some of those who helped elect Carter Harrison Mayor of Chicago."

"What of Tracy's estimate of his vote made last night?" "General Tracy is mistaken in the situation. He is counting on the McKinley vote. I have no fears of the result. People are tired of old issues. The craze that elected McKinley has gone. The masses are sick of McKinleyism and will put their seal of condemnation on it on election day. They are tired of Hamiltonism and of the system and the machine that uses the Government of the United States for the benefit of trusts."

"What