The medium price suits here are not made serviceable at the expense of style. For instance: in these suits we have copied the style of suits that cost double.

3 and 4 button single, and 3 button double-breasted sack suits, from worsted chevots and fancy worsted cassimeres, in checks and plaids, at $18 and $20. And blacks and blues in abundance at both prices.

And we've a multitude of attractions in style, price and quality in Boys' and Children's Clothes.

Here's a glove item worth reading; Perrin's Imported Street Gloves, the usual $2 quality, at $1.69 a pair. Don't think about it too long, the quantity is limited.

Holiday Mind-Reading

THE holiday purchasing of our buyers has girdled the globe. They travel, they study, they buy. Our college of merchandise experts are a psychological lot—universal mind-readers. They have thought the thoughts of everybody in the matter of goods for holiday gifts. The HOLIDAY STOCKS are the test of the statement. Bring your wishes and try them by what you find here. That process will show you how nearly we have prepared for everybody—including you.

The free-handed millionaire seeking for rich, costly, and curious things, the timid child that endeavors to divide the cherished little savings into sundry purchases, have been equally in mind and generously anticipated.

But the charm of the store is its freedom. Public ownership of enjoyment. This fundamental Wanamaker idea has become rooted in the minds of New Yorkers. Hence the Saturday matinee.

Christmas Books. FAIR prices for all books, and all the time,—that is the principle that has made the Wanamaker book-store the safest and most satisfactory place to buy books. Here you are not trapped by twenty copies of a popular book advertised at less than wholesale cost to-day, to be told to-morrow that "the edition is exhausted." It's an easy fraud to work; does it make permanent customers?

All new books are here on the day of issue, on a special table, at Wanamaker prices—fair prices, and BOOK NEWS tells you what good critics think of them; 5c. a number; 50c. a year.

Here are some handsome illustrated books for holiday gifts:—"Scenic Marvels of the New World"—235 views of American Scenery. Size 11x13 1/2 inches. In full morocco, gilt edges, $2.50.

"Glimpses of the World"—265 photographic reproductions of various parts of the world. Size 11x13 inches. $3.

"Beautiful Britain." Comprising views of royal residences, palaces, castles, etc., with descriptions and notes. Size 11x13 1/2 inches. Half morocco, gilt edges, $3.

"Military Career of Napoleon"—An account of his remarkable campaigns. By Montgomery B. Gibbs. 12 mo. illustrated. Half leather, gilt top. 50c.

"The Wonderful Story of Old"—Sens. incidents, and events recorded in the Holy Bible. By Marcus Wilson. Illustrated from the works of great masters. 2 vols. 8vo., $1.50.

"Forest and Jungle"—An illustrated history of the Animal Kingdom. By P. T. Barnum. Illustrated. 8vo. 70c.

"A History of the War of Secession." By Rossiter Johnston. Illustrated. 8vo. 85 cents.

"Golden Links in the Chain that Connects Mother, Home and Heaven." Introduction by Bishop J. P. Newman. 8vo. Illustrated, 50 cents.

Silk Waists. JUDGE of the variety in our stock of waists by these in black only. Nearly all are made with yoke, and have laundered collars.

$3.50—Black taffeta, yoke back, full front, lined throughout. $4.50—Black taffeta, full front, yoke back, new pointed cuffs. $5—Superior quality taffeta, fine tucked sleeve, plaited in front, silk collar, plaited sleeve.

$5—Extra quality taffeta, yoke and four plaits, full front, silk collar, pointed cuffs. $6—Handsome black satin waist, yoke back, blouse front, with fine cross plaits. $6.75—Heavy black satin, yoke and two plaits in back, full front with fine cross plaits.

$6.75—Neat waist of fine black taffeta, silk lined and boned, plaited yoke, full front, with knife and cluster plating. $7.50—Very fine black taffeta waist, lined and boned, with plaits over shoulder, silk ruffles on front and top of sleeves, jet buckles.

In colored silk waists you get a great bargain to-day,—two hundred bright new waists, made of the short pieces of silk left on hand by a manufacturer at the end of his season,—rich figured and striped taffetas, handsome brocades, black-and-white and Roman stripes, hardly two of any pattern; all full-front, yoke-back, with laundered collars, and all lined. These waists are regularly $7.50 to $10; now all $5 each.

Boys' Clothing. PRICES on two lines of fancy cheviot suits have had a serious fall. They are in the better grades, with double-breasted jackets, sizes 7 to 16 years. Early-season prices were $8.50 and $9; now $6.50 a suit.

Also double-breasted suits with vests, in fancy Scotch chevots, that were $9, are now $6.50. And two lots of Sailor Suits, 3 to 12 years, in fancy chevots, club checks, that were $6.50, are now $4.50. And Sailor Suits in pretty broken plaids, with collar and shield of fine covert, that were $7.50, are now $6. Finally, some Sailor Suits of blue cloth, trimmed with wide mohair braid and silk soutache, at $3 a suit.

Girls' Cloak Coats. CLOAK prices grow more and more attractive as the season advances. Some of the very best things come a-begging to Wanamaker's now.

Some of them are too good to miss—such as this lot of girls' handsome coats, sizes 14 to 18 years, ready to-day at prices a full third less than a few weeks ago.

Now $5.50—Pretty jackets of mixed chevots or tan whipcords, all with high collars, some half-lined with satin; all have bound seams.

Now $7.50—Stylish jackets of loop boucle cloth, plain navy blue, or brown-and-black mixtures, with high storm collar, half-lined with changeable silk.

Now $10—Blouse jackets of black cheviot, finished with stitching, lined with satin rhadame.

Now $13.50—Jackets of handsome red astrakhan cloth, prettily braided-trimmed, lined with fancy satin.

Now $15—Coats of fine kersey, two shades of green and two of brown, beautifully trimmed with Alaska sable fur and shaded braid, lined with taffeta silk.

Now $20—Blouse coats of fine kersey, in three shades of green, beautifully braided all over, high collar, and lined with Roman stripe silk.

Women's Coats and Capes. FIFTY of the handsomest of our imported capes go on sale to-day at a price-reduction of 25 per cent. They are nearly all black, handsomely trimmed with braid, fur or applique of satin, cloth or jet.

$75 Capes, now $56.25. $60 Capes, now $45. $50 Capes, now $37.50. $40 Capes, now $30.

In coats also the values are almost as great. At $5—Black diagonal boucle cheviot coats, double-breasted, fly-front, storm collar, tailor back, made with welled seams, wide cloth facings, and half-lined with satin serge.

$7.50—Black or navy kersey coats, fly-front, notch collar, tailor back; hip pockets with flaps; sleeves capped, finished with straps and lined with satin rhadame.

$10—Black or navy kersey cloth, fly-front, coat collar and back, lined throughout with satin rhadame.

Trimmed Hats at $6. A COLLECTION of handsome trimmed hats, that were $10 hats not long ago, are going on sale to-day at $6 each. All are black fur-felts; here are three in detail:—

1. Short-back sailor, black silk velvet around crown, with fancy coque feathers and velvet roses.

2. Short-back sailor, with broad Alsatian trimming of black wings, velvet and silk, with silk roses.

3. Short-back sailor, with Tam O'Shanter crown of black velvet, high ostrich feather side trimming, finished with silk and velvet roses.

Men's Overcoats. NOTICE the guarantee of quality that you find in our $12 kersey overcoats; they have satin yoke-linings, such as the average clothing house would think preposterous in a coat at less than $18. Black or navy blue, lined with all-wool diagonal, velvet collar, and made with three-quarter inch lapped seams, they are coats built for style and for service.

Cameras. FOR a person who has the photographic fever there is just one gift—all other things are vanity.

We sell cameras as we sell other goods—at the fancy and sentiment are in the goods, but all taken out of the price.

The new camera for 1898 is the folding pocket Kodak, at $10. It's rather better than anything of its kind yet developed. While you examine, don't forget to examine this special lot of fine cameras, reduced 20 per cent, to close them out.

No. 4 Folding Kodak, 4 by 5 in. plate, with B. & L. Shutter; now $25.

No. 5 Folding Kodak, 5 by 7 in. plate, with B. & L. Shutter; now $37.

No. 6 Folding Kodak, 4 by 5 in. plate or film, with Eastman pneumatic shutter, or B. & L. Shutter; now $25.

No. 7 Folding Kodak, 5 by 7 in. special plate or film, with B. & L. kodak shutter; now $37.50.

No. 8 Folding Kodak, 5 by 7 in. plate or film, with B. & L. shutter; now $50.

It Stands Criticism. RIDPATH'S History of the World—its nations and races—has been examined and criticised as never before. We made sure of its standing and great excellence before we consented to form a club for it.

Here is what an eminent scholar says of it—after we had set him to work to pick flaws:—

"It states received conclusions clearly and definitely, omitting the 'ifs' and 'buts' which confuse a plain man and do him no good. For a family book, to supplement short school histories and help the people who want to learn and have not time to read many books or search in large libraries, this work is better than anything else accessible."

No wonder the interest in the Club grows day by day—as the books get scattered and known. Already we have had to close advertising arrangements in some directions because the edition of the work available to us will not be fairly equal to the demand. Eight carloads have already been distributed.

Until the Wanamaker History Club closes you can secure a set at half price, and on small monthly payments.

The entire set of eight volumes, in any binding, is delivered upon payment of the membership fee—One Dollar. Members agree to make fifteen monthly payments—first payment thirty days after joining—for the cloth-bound, $1.50 a month; for the half-Russia—by far the more durable and attractive—$2 a month; for sumptuous full morocco, $2.50 a month.

Members may return within ten days, and their payments will be returned. Specimen pages, illustrations, testimonials, mailed free.
