

NEW YORK GIRLS WED BARON AND BRITON BOLD.

"Teddy" Roosevelt's Cousin, Miss Le Vinsen, the Baroness Mumm Schwarzenstein—Miss Moller Captain Ewart's Bride.

These Fair Americans Figure in International Marriages This Week.

WELL DEFINED RUMOR CIRCULATED REGARDING THE JERSEY TRACK.

Meeting Can Scarcely Be Expected to Thrive with Such Inferior Racing.

By Francis Trevelyan.

That the recent two-day meeting at Elkwood Park was designed to be the thin end of the wedge in opening the doors of the State of New Jersey to the racing fraternity was not an unforeseen possibility. That such was actually the idea appears to be in some measure corroborated by a well defined rumor which gained circulation at Brighton Beach yesterday that application had been made to the Jockey Club for a license for a ten-day meeting at Monmouth Park.

Mr. F. O. Hannon, the acting secretary of the Jockey Club, denied that any official application for such a license had been received by the Jockey Club up to yesterday. Furthermore, nobody could be found to either father the rumor or acknowledge that any deliberate attempt would be made to open the Law and Order League of New Jersey in its den. Much uncertainty has been felt since Mr. Van Keuren, who used to be the superintendent of the race courses, recently bought the property in as to whom he represented in the deal. The most probable principal was Lucien O. Appleby, who acquired large interests in the property after the death of D. D. Withers.

Mr. Appleby was not to be found at Brighton Beach yesterday after the story had begun to go the rounds. There are many reasons outside of the existing law in New Jersey, however, why such a meeting as is suggested should not be given. As matters stand the Jockey Club has all the interests it can attend to within the limits of New York State and would be very unlikely to foster the reopening of the New Jersey tracks, which, if it must be remembered, include Gloucester, Gloucester and several others besides Monmouth Park.

Secondly, Monmouth Park is dismantled of all movable fixtures. Mr. Appleby bought those in which they were offered at auction, including all the grand stand seats, etc. Thirdly, there is no chance that dates could be obtained which would admit of a possible profit. In fact, if it is really intended to give a meeting at Monmouth it must be regarded merely as representing a necessary initial expense in the effort to open up the State once more for racing.

The Brighton Beach meeting can scarcely be expected to thrive if such inferior programmes are offered as yesterday's. In the old "merry-go-round" days, when the "board-owners" crowded in and out of the sun-soaked bleachers, there was no pretence at style. But there were large and well-matched fields and lively betting. Now the fields are of about the same quality as of yore, but they are small and often ill-matched. However many tests three favorites and three rank outsiders won yesterday's events. One favorite was an odds on another at even money, while the third, Effie, was only preferred by a fraction of a point over two other horses in the same race. The sport was tame from one end of the day to the other, and the chief advantage was that the races were soon over. Still the "regulars" are beginning to groan when they remember that twenty-eight more days of this sort of thing are to come.

The half dozen platters in the first race were not uncommonly had that the talent had a hard time selecting a favorite. When they did guess they guessed all wrong, and the three best backed horses were last three of the set. Longacre, ridden by a stable boy and almost friendless at 12 to 1, got the money after the said stable boy, Moody, had shown the sense to sit still and keep his hands down. The 7 to 1 shot, Squire Abington, was third, and then came the 6 to 5 favorite and the 3 to 1 and 4 to 1 shots.

Effie opened at 2 to 1, but went to 10 to 5, since various hopes were entertained for her. She was ridden by a stable boy, and others. Effie made all his own running, and though the rank outsider, General Garry, kept him a tight busy in the stretch, he was not to be bled. However, wrenched a plate and cut himself.

The best field of the day came out for the first time in the third race. The field was heavily backed, and closed equal favorite with Swiftman at 2 to 1. Williams had the command, but the overrated colt ran worse than ever, not having a bit of speed at any stage of the game. The race was between the outsider, Sir Gawain, and Swiftman. The latter was taken to the front, contrary to the tactics pursued with him at six furlongs on Wednesday, and leaving Sir Gawain at the head of the stretch, looked a winner all over. Doggett rode a fierce finish on Sir Gawain, and by sheer hard work won by a length.

Mr. Mitchell won the high-weight handicap, but just as she had the race in hand at the top of the stretch she fell. It turned out that she was nearly as big as a hen's egg, wedged in her near hind foot and twisted the plate. This enabled Williams to get up the favorite, Lamont, and win by a head from the pacemaker, Van Antwerp.

Marblehead, a 3 to 5 favorite, had nothing to do in the fifth race, and won by a length from that most disappointing animal, Dr. Parker.

Thomas, at 10 to 1, wound the afternoon up by making all the pace, and winning in a drive from Dolando and Burlesque, the two favorites.

The National Steeplechase and Hunt Association has sustained the action of the Sheepshend Bay stewards about last Monday's steeplechase, English, Finnegan and Dutch, thus remain suspended till further investigation.

John E. Madden point-blank denies the report that Messrs. Whitney and Pagar are after Plaudit. He says that not only has he received no offer for the colt, but that Plaudit is not for sale.

Mr. Oliver, who is from Chicago with Warrenton and the best of his stable yesterday. He says that with Sloane, Taral or Sims up Warrenton could not have lost the Derby, though the heavy track bothered him. He sold H. Daddy and King Bermuda. Summaries:

First Race—For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Belle of Erin, 12 to 1, won; Ellis Daily, 85 to 100, second; 25 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.4.

Second Race—Selling. Five furlongs. Squire Abington, 7 to 1, won; Moody, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Third Race—For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Swiftman, 2 to 1, won; Williams, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.4.

Fourth Race—Handicap. One mile and a sixteenth. Van Antwerp, 10 to 1, won; Lamont, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Fifth Race—Handicap. Two-year-olds. Six furlongs. Sir Hubert, 126 to 1, won; 126 to 1, second; 126 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Sixth Race—Selling. For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Sir Hubert, 126 to 1, won; 126 to 1, second; 126 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

POOR CARD AT BRIGHTON.

Meeting Can Scarcely Be Expected to Thrive with Such Inferior Racing.

By Francis Trevelyan.

That the recent two-day meeting at Elkwood Park was designed to be the thin end of the wedge in opening the doors of the State of New Jersey to the racing fraternity was not an unforeseen possibility. That such was actually the idea appears to be in some measure corroborated by a well defined rumor which gained circulation at Brighton Beach yesterday that application had been made to the Jockey Club for a license for a ten-day meeting at Monmouth Park.

Mr. F. O. Hannon, the acting secretary of the Jockey Club, denied that any official application for such a license had been received by the Jockey Club up to yesterday. Furthermore, nobody could be found to either father the rumor or acknowledge that any deliberate attempt would be made to open the Law and Order League of New Jersey in its den. Much uncertainty has been felt since Mr. Van Keuren, who used to be the superintendent of the race courses, recently bought the property in as to whom he represented in the deal. The most probable principal was Lucien O. Appleby, who acquired large interests in the property after the death of D. D. Withers.

Mr. Appleby was not to be found at Brighton Beach yesterday after the story had begun to go the rounds. There are many reasons outside of the existing law in New Jersey, however, why such a meeting as is suggested should not be given. As matters stand the Jockey Club has all the interests it can attend to within the limits of New York State and would be very unlikely to foster the reopening of the New Jersey tracks, which, if it must be remembered, include Gloucester, Gloucester and several others besides Monmouth Park.

Secondly, Monmouth Park is dismantled of all movable fixtures. Mr. Appleby bought those in which they were offered at auction, including all the grand stand seats, etc. Thirdly, there is no chance that dates could be obtained which would admit of a possible profit. In fact, if it is really intended to give a meeting at Monmouth it must be regarded merely as representing a necessary initial expense in the effort to open up the State once more for racing.

The Brighton Beach meeting can scarcely be expected to thrive if such inferior programmes are offered as yesterday's. In the old "merry-go-round" days, when the "board-owners" crowded in and out of the sun-soaked bleachers, there was no pretence at style. But there were large and well-matched fields and lively betting. Now the fields are of about the same quality as of yore, but they are small and often ill-matched. However many tests three favorites and three rank outsiders won yesterday's events. One favorite was an odds on another at even money, while the third, Effie, was only preferred by a fraction of a point over two other horses in the same race. The sport was tame from one end of the day to the other, and the chief advantage was that the races were soon over. Still the "regulars" are beginning to groan when they remember that twenty-eight more days of this sort of thing are to come.

The half dozen platters in the first race were not uncommonly had that the talent had a hard time selecting a favorite. When they did guess they guessed all wrong, and the three best backed horses were last three of the set. Longacre, ridden by a stable boy and almost friendless at 12 to 1, got the money after the said stable boy, Moody, had shown the sense to sit still and keep his hands down. The 7 to 1 shot, Squire Abington, was third, and then came the 6 to 5 favorite and the 3 to 1 and 4 to 1 shots.

Effie opened at 2 to 1, but went to 10 to 5, since various hopes were entertained for her. She was ridden by a stable boy, and others. Effie made all his own running, and though the rank outsider, General Garry, kept him a tight busy in the stretch, he was not to be bled. However, wrenched a plate and cut himself.

The best field of the day came out for the first time in the third race. The field was heavily backed, and closed equal favorite with Swiftman at 2 to 1. Williams had the command, but the overrated colt ran worse than ever, not having a bit of speed at any stage of the game. The race was between the outsider, Sir Gawain, and Swiftman. The latter was taken to the front, contrary to the tactics pursued with him at six furlongs on Wednesday, and leaving Sir Gawain at the head of the stretch, looked a winner all over. Doggett rode a fierce finish on Sir Gawain, and by sheer hard work won by a length.

Mr. Mitchell won the high-weight handicap, but just as she had the race in hand at the top of the stretch she fell. It turned out that she was nearly as big as a hen's egg, wedged in her near hind foot and twisted the plate. This enabled Williams to get up the favorite, Lamont, and win by a head from the pacemaker, Van Antwerp.

Marblehead, a 3 to 5 favorite, had nothing to do in the fifth race, and won by a length from that most disappointing animal, Dr. Parker.

Thomas, at 10 to 1, wound the afternoon up by making all the pace, and winning in a drive from Dolando and Burlesque, the two favorites.

The National Steeplechase and Hunt Association has sustained the action of the Sheepshend Bay stewards about last Monday's steeplechase, English, Finnegan and Dutch, thus remain suspended till further investigation.

John E. Madden point-blank denies the report that Messrs. Whitney and Pagar are after Plaudit. He says that not only has he received no offer for the colt, but that Plaudit is not for sale.

Mr. Oliver, who is from Chicago with Warrenton and the best of his stable yesterday. He says that with Sloane, Taral or Sims up Warrenton could not have lost the Derby, though the heavy track bothered him. He sold H. Daddy and King Bermuda. Summaries:

First Race—For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Belle of Erin, 12 to 1, won; Ellis Daily, 85 to 100, second; 25 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.4.

Second Race—Selling. Five furlongs. Squire Abington, 7 to 1, won; Moody, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Third Race—For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Swiftman, 2 to 1, won; Williams, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.4.

Fourth Race—Handicap. One mile and a sixteenth. Van Antwerp, 10 to 1, won; Lamont, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Fifth Race—Handicap. Two-year-olds. Six furlongs. Sir Hubert, 126 to 1, won; 126 to 1, second; 126 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Sixth Race—Selling. For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Sir Hubert, 126 to 1, won; 126 to 1, second; 126 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

WOMEN IN THE WAR.

At their meeting yesterday morning the Women of the Patriotic Relief Association, whose work lies in line with that of the Soldiers' Protective Association, were saddened by the recital of their investigating committee.

They heard of a girl not yet sixteen, who is a mother, deserted by her husband for the war.

She knows, duly, "there's a battle somewhere, and that him as promised to send his carnin's ain't sent 'em."

She knows that she has been left behind with her mother, who on $5 a week is trying to support her, her baby and two other children.

THIRTY cases of soldiers' families in distress were reported yesterday morning at the Women of the Patriotic Relief Association as having been relieved. Then Mrs. Ralph Trautmann, from the chair, made an appeal to her associates on behalf of one more—the family of a young man, who only a few weeks ago was stenographer in her husband's office.

"His name was George Crowley," she said, "of Company N, Seventy-first Regiment. He was killed at Santiago. He was eighteen years of age. He looked older. Passed examination somehow, and would go."

Mrs. Trautmann spoke in short sentences, as though she feared her voice might break in longer ones.

"His father and mother are dead. He helped to support a grandmother and four young brothers and sisters. They needed all he could give them."

At the end of Mrs. Trautmann's appeal it was decided to take action at once, and a special committee was appointed to take up the case.

One thousand dollars was reported yesterday by the treasurer, $500 having been raised by Mrs. Charles Carroll at her garden party on Staten Island.

The New York Naval Reserve on the Yankee, off Tompkinsville, have been looked out for by a delegation of children who call themselves the Margaret Pascal Club, in honor of their president. Every jockey on board has received some sort of token from these small people, and delicacies have been added by the Borough of Richmond Auxiliary.

It was decided that the Patriotic Association should as speedily as possible raise money for an ice plant to be presented to the same ship.

THE following cablegram was received by Stephen Barton from Miss Clara Barton yesterday morning:

Siboney, July 6, via Playa del Este.

To Barton, New York:

Came from Shafter's front in the night for food, and anything for refugees, who are leaving Santiago by the thousands, starving and naked.

The State of Texas has gone to Port Antonio for ice to save her meat. Will return to-morrow.

Are sending supplies to refugees—all we can—from both camps by army wagons and pack mules.

It is nearly impossible to land supplies. High tides; no docks; surf terrific. Our ship yards cannot stand in the surf. Have mended one old broken flat boat which our men drag ashore in the surf waist deep. No transportation. Horse and packers' tent would be helpful.

Wounded men taken from our operating tables are laid on the ground often without blankets or shelter from the rain or sun. As others die their clothing is taken to put on the naked.

CLARA BARTON.

TO-DAY'S PROBABLE WINNERS.

At Brighton.

FIRST RACE—MISS LYNN, ATHAMAS.

SECOND RACE—MEDDLER, CAPTAIN SIGSBEE.

THIRD RACE—CALDRON, LEHMAN.

FOURTH RACE—IRISH REEL, DR. CAT-LEW.

FIFTH RACE—ETHELBERT, SIR HUAERT.

SIXTH RACE—REN RONALD, DECANER.

WE are always won by the versatile man—who gives us a variety of amusements. There are few more competent to develop all round merit than Mr. Dan Packard, the humorist, the playwright, the actor, the song writer. He is the man who wrote that delightful new song, "I Love Dat Man," which is now being sung by Alice Atherton at the Casino Roof Garden, where it makes unlimited fun for the large audiences that gather nightly to hear it. The song, complete in words and music and full music score size, will be issued next Sunday in the Musical Supplement of the great New York Journal. But you must see that your order is in early in the week or you may not get a copy. Now is a good time to see your dealer.

BRIGHTON BEACH RESULTS.

First Race—Selling. Five furlongs. Belle of Erin, 12 to 1, won; Ellis Daily, 85 to 100, second; 25 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.4.

Second Race—Selling. Five furlongs. Squire Abington, 7 to 1, won; Moody, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Third Race—For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Swiftman, 2 to 1, won; Williams, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.4.

Fourth Race—Handicap. One mile and a sixteenth. Van Antwerp, 10 to 1, won; Lamont, 10 to 1, second; 10 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Fifth Race—Handicap. Two-year-olds. Six furlongs. Sir Hubert, 126 to 1, won; 126 to 1, second; 126 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

Sixth Race—Selling. For three-year-olds and upward: $200 added. 12 furlongs. Sir Hubert, 126 to 1, won; 126 to 1, second; 126 to 1, third. Time, 1:14.4.

WOMEN IN THE WAR.

At their meeting yesterday morning the Women of the Patriotic Relief Association, whose work lies in line with that of the Soldiers' Protective Association, were saddened by the recital of their investigating committee.

They heard of a girl not yet sixteen, who is a mother, deserted by her husband for the war.

She knows, duly, "there's a battle somewhere, and that him as promised to send his carnin's ain't sent 'em."

She knows that she has been left behind with her mother, who on $5 a week is trying to support her, her baby and two other children.

THIRTY cases of soldiers' families in distress were reported yesterday morning at the Women of the Patriotic Relief Association as having been relieved. Then Mrs. Ralph Trautmann, from the chair, made an appeal to her associates on behalf of one more—the family of a young man, who only a few weeks ago was stenographer in her husband's office.

"His name was George Crowley," she said, "of Company N, Seventy-first Regiment. He was killed at Santiago. He was eighteen years of age. He looked older. Passed examination somehow, and would go."

Mrs. Trautmann spoke in short sentences, as though she feared her voice might break in longer ones.

"His father and mother are dead. He helped to support a grandmother and four young brothers and sisters. They needed all he could give them."

At the end of Mrs. Trautmann's appeal it was decided to take action at once, and a special committee was appointed to take up the case.

One thousand dollars was reported yesterday by the treasurer, $500 having been raised by Mrs. Charles Carroll at her garden party on Staten Island.

The New York Naval Reserve on the Yankee, off Tompkinsville, have been looked out for by a delegation of children who call themselves the Margaret Pascal Club, in honor of their president. Every jockey on board has received some sort of token from these small people, and delicacies have been added by the Borough of Richmond Auxiliary.

It was decided that the Patriotic Association should as speedily as possible raise money for an ice plant to be presented to the same ship.

THE following cablegram was received by Stephen Barton from Miss Clara Barton yesterday morning:

Siboney, July 6, via Playa del Este.

To Barton, New York:

Came from Shafter's front in the night for food, and anything for refugees, who are leaving Santiago by the thousands, starving and naked.

The State of Texas has gone to Port Antonio for ice to save her meat. Will return to-morrow.

Are sending supplies to refugees—all we can—from both camps by army wagons and pack mules.

It is nearly impossible to land supplies. High tides; no docks; surf terrific. Our ship yards cannot stand in the surf. Have mended one old broken flat boat which our men drag ashore in the surf waist deep. No transportation. Horse and packers' tent would be helpful.

Wounded men taken from our operating tables are laid on the ground often without blankets or shelter from the rain or sun. As others die their clothing is taken to put on the naked.

CLARA BARTON.

WOMEN IN THE WAR.

At their meeting yesterday morning the Women of the Patriotic Relief Association, whose work lies in line with that of the Soldiers' Protective Association, were saddened by the recital of their investigating committee.

They heard of a girl not yet sixteen, who is a mother, deserted by her husband for the war.

She knows, duly, "there's a battle somewhere, and that him as promised to send his carnin's ain't sent 'em."

She knows that she has been left behind with her mother, who on $5 a week is trying to support her, her baby and two other children.

THIRTY cases of soldiers' families in distress were reported yesterday morning at the Women of the Patriotic Relief Association as having been relieved. Then Mrs. Ralph Trautmann, from the chair, made an appeal to her associates on behalf of one more—the family of a young man, who only a few weeks ago was stenographer in her husband's office.

"His name was George Crowley," she said, "of Company N, Seventy-first Regiment. He was killed at Santiago. He was eighteen years of age. He looked older. Passed examination somehow, and would go."

Mrs. Trautmann spoke in short sentences, as though she feared her voice might break in longer ones.

"His father and mother are dead. He helped to support a grandmother and four young brothers and sisters. They needed all he could give them."

At the end of Mrs. Trautmann's appeal it was decided to take action at once, and a special committee was appointed to take up the case.

One thousand dollars was reported yesterday by the treasurer, $500 having been raised by Mrs. Charles Carroll at her garden party on Staten Island.

The New York Naval Reserve on the Yankee, off Tompkinsville, have been looked out for by a delegation of children who call themselves the Margaret Pascal Club, in honor of their president. Every jockey on board has received some sort of token from these small people, and delicacies have been added by the Borough of Richmond Auxiliary.

It was decided that the Patriotic Association should as speedily as possible raise money for an ice plant to be presented to the same ship.

THE following cablegram was received by Stephen Barton from Miss Clara Barton yesterday morning:

Siboney, July 6, via Playa del Este.

To Barton, New York:

Came from Shafter's front in the night for food, and anything for refugees, who are leaving Santiago by the thousands, starving and naked.

The State of Texas has gone to Port Antonio for ice to save her meat. Will return to-morrow.

Are sending supplies to refugees—all we can—from both camps by army wagons and pack mules.

It is nearly impossible to land supplies. High tides; no docks; surf terrific. Our ship yards cannot stand in the surf. Have mended one old broken flat boat which our men drag ashore in the surf waist deep. No transportation. Horse and packers' tent would be helpful.

Wounded men taken from our operating tables are laid on the ground often without blankets or shelter from the rain or sun. As others die their clothing is taken to put on the naked.

CLARA BARTON.

GERRY SOCIETY IS UNDER FIRE.

Attorney-General Hancock Wants It Subjected to Inspection.

SEEKS WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Commodore Argues That It Is Exempt as a Criminal Institution.

The question as to whether the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, commonly known as the Gerry society, is subject to the control of the State Board of Charities came up in the Supreme Court yesterday before Justice Giegerich, who, after hearing arguments, reserved his decision.

The Attorney-General applied for a writ of mandamus to compel the Gerry society to submit to an inspection by the authorities of the State, and also render a report of its receipts, expenditures and the work done by it, as is done by other charitable organizations.

It was contended on behalf of the State Board of Charities that the Gerry society is a charitable institution within the meaning of the law, and that it is bound to render an annual report as to its financial condition and its proceedings, as other charitable institutions do. The society is alleged to receive from the city and elsewhere more than $20,000 a year.

Commodore E. T. Gerry and De Lancey Neill, the legal representatives of the society, contended that the State Board of Charities has no control over the institution, and that it is not a charitable institution within the meaning of the statute relied on by the State Board. It was also claimed that the statute books contain several laws regulating charitable organizations, in all of which are provisions extending to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children from their jurisdiction. Attorney-General T. E. Hancock, in supporting the application for the writ of mandamus, said the State Board of Charities was authorized by the law to visit and inspect any "charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory institution of this State, existing pursuant to rules established by the State Board of Charities."

The Attorney-General, after quoting provisions of the law bearing on the case, said the application was necessary for the purpose of determining the powers and duties of the State Board with reference to institutions and societies of this description. He said the Gerry society was undoubtedly a charitable institution.

Commodore Gerry contended that the society was in no sense a charitable organization, but a part of the machinery of the criminal law of the county of New York, and the Police Department recognized it as such.

CARRIERS MUST PAY THE WAR TAX.

Merchants' Association Wins Its Fight Against the Recalcitrant Local Express Companies.

The case of the Merchants' Association of New York against the express companies over the question of the one cent war tax on each receipt for an express package will not now, it is said, be taken to the courts. By a decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, the tax of one cent a package must be borne not by the shippers but by the express companies.

The Merchants' Association thus wins the fight without the intervention of the courts.

It was said yesterday morning by an officer of the National City Bank, that it had decided not to oppose the stamp tax of four cents on orders payable in foreign countries. It will not attempt to make a test case, but will hereafter stamp bills of exchange the checks which it draws upon its funds abroad.

HUGH M'LAUGHLIN'S GRANDSON DEAD.

Little Son of His Daughter, Mrs. W. C. Courtney, Has Diphtheria.

The six-year-old grandson of ex-Register Hugh M'Laughlin died last night of diphtheria at his mother's home in the Borough of Brooklyn.

The child was a son of Mr. M'Laughlin's daughter, Mrs. William C. Courtney, and her first husband, who is now dead, Dr. Alexander F. Carroll.

HEAD ACHE

"Both my wife and myself have been using CASBARETS and they are the best medicine we have ever had in the house. Last week my wife was sick with headache for two days, she tried some of your CASBARETS and they relieved the pain in her head almost immediately. We both recommend Cascarets."

Pittsburg Safe & Deposit Co., Pittsburg, Pa.

CANDY CATHARTIC

Cascarets

REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sickens, Weakens, or Grips. 50c. Box, 60c. Sold EVERYWHERE. Retailing Regularly Co., Chicago, Boston, New York, etc.

RO-TO-BAC sold and guaranteed by all drug stores. C. E. & C. E. Tobacco Habit.

Dr. Ricord's Essence of Life

restores manhood and the vigor of youth in few weeks; failure impossible; this remedy should be taken by all who are feeble, nervous, and worn out; the great blood and nerve specialist, 216 East 10th St., New York, N. Y. No charge unless cured; hours 10 to 6. Sundays included.

TO-LET

If you want to let Houses, Flats, Apartments or Rooms, put a "Want" in the Journal's To-Let Columns—read by more people than any other newspaper.

CHILD'S SAVINGS SAVED HER MOTHER

"Please, Judge, Take This Money," Said She, "and Let Mamma Go."

AGNES HAD BEEN THRIFTY.

Her Little Hoard Paid for Clothes Which Mrs. Bayliss Was Charged with Stealing.

It was a little red stocking, of a size to fit a child of six, and it had a tight knot in it down near the toe. Little Agnes Bayliss held it up before Police Justice Potts, in Jersey City, yesterday, and made this speech:

"Please, Judge, there's seven dollars in it, and I've been saving it three years. If you'll only let my mamma go, I'll give you this, and I'll pay you the other $8 just as soon as I can."

The Justice looked sheepish, and the prisoner, Mrs. Agnes Bayliss, burst out crying. Small Agnes, who is nine years old, hastened to add:

"My mamma didn't mean to steal Mrs. Cogill's clothes. She said no thief. She just took them because she thought Mrs. Cogill didn't need 'em, and my mamma had no clothes of her own fit to be seen in. Judge, you don't know how poor we are."

And as the little advocate said, this her self-control left her, and she began to weep.

"Well, we must see about this," said Justice Potts clearing his throat. "Officer, I wish you'd stop that noise in the court, it's disgraceful. Now—sit—down!" and the prisoner stand forward. Madame, I am going to suspend sentence on you for your little girl's sake. This money must be paid to Mrs. Cogill for the value of the clothing. For the present we won't say anything more about the old $8, or the $5 costs. You may go, and mind you, take good care of that little girl."

Thereupon Agnes and her mother returned, hand in hand, to their poor home in Railroad avenue.

Actor Keene Leaves Very Little.

Sheriff Stephens, of Richmond County, reported yesterday Mrs. Margaret Edgson, widow of Thomas W. Edgson, better known as "Thomas W. Keene," the actor, administrator of his estate. The actor's will and his property amount to about $1,000.

"I think Ripans Tabules about the best thing there is," said the Colonel; "I guess they are THE best! I was sitting the other evening smoking and drinking a little whisky and water; there were four of us there and one complained of being very uncomfortable. When he had told us about it I said to him, 'all that ails you is indigestion,' and I gave him a Ripans Tabule from a little vial I had in my pocket. We each of us took one, and since then I have learned that every one of the three has bought the TABULES and thinks them the greatest things there are a going."

The Most Popular Music Published.

ALICE ATHERTON'S BIG HITS:

"MY ANN ELIZER," THE RAG TIME GIRL. By Malcolm Williams.

and "I LOVE DAT MAN," Words by Dan Packard. Music by E. J. Simmes. Now Being Sung on the Casino Roof Garden with Great Success.

ANOTHER BIG HIT AND NOW BEING SUNG BY ALL TOP LINERS, "I Don't Like You, Honey, Any More," By Dan Packard and Andrew Le Roc.

HERE THEY ARE—ALL BIG HITS:

"Margaret." By Dan Packard and J. E. Nicol.

"I Love My Dolly Best." By Malcolm Williams.

"Perhaps She Is Somebody's Mother." By Al. Trahern.

"Sally." Waltz Song. By Walter Hawley.

"My Sweetheart Plays the Violin." By Dan Packard and Emily Smith.

"She's My Only Sister." By George M. Emerick.

"My Love Is All for Thee." By Al. Trahern.

"They'll Ne'er Come Back Again." By Al. Trahern.

"Pretty Pauletta." Sung by Della Fox. Words and music by Thos. H. Childers.

INSTRUMENTAL HITS:

"CUPID'S DREAM" WALTZES. By WARNER CROSBY. The most melodious and popular waltzes published. Now being played by all orchestras.

"THE VAMPIRE," TWO-STEP MARCH. By WARNER CROSBY.

DANCING GIRL WALTZES. By ROBERT CONE.

VAN CORLANDT MARCH. By RICHARD E. SAUSE, Bandmaster Van Cortlandt Park.

"SALUTE THE COLORS." Patriotic March. By WARNER CROSBY.

These songs and instrumental numbers are only a small number of the many hits we have in our catalogue. Our publications are sold by all Music Dealers in the United States and Canada.

Any of the Above Publications Mailed on Receipt of Twenty-five Cents.

MYLL BROS.,

Music Publishers. 43 West 28th Street, New York.