

NAKED LIGHTS WERE ORDERED IN THE MINE.

Pitt Boss Jones, at Braznell, Admits This—He "Considered" the Place Had Been Made Safe Enough.

Other Officials Do Not Dispute His Statement, but Shift Responsibility for the Order to Him.

Four More Bodies Taken Out, but Not Identified—All Thought of Christmas Is Foregone by Citizens.

Brownsville, Pa., Dec. 25.—The fact that naked lights were ordered by the mine officials, and were being used in the Braznell mine, at Uniontown, at the time of the fatal explosion, is now acknowledged.

That naked lights and unlocked safety lamps were used in a dangerous mine was officially confirmed today by Pitt Boss Jones.

"I considered that the mine was safe, as the 'break through' had been fixed up," said Jones.

"Yes, it is true that some were not locked, because I thought the men who used them were competent to carry them unlocked."

"Oh, there may be a regulation, but men sometimes carry unlocked lamps where it is known that they are experienced miners."

Mine Superintendent Boyer, when informed of the statement made by Jones, said: "I know nothing of the order issued on Tuesday, but consider Jones a capable man, who knows his business, and I suppose he used his judgment."

A. S. Braznell, manager of the mine, said: "I know nothing of such an order. I have no part in the direct management of the mine, as our pit officials are the responsible parties."

Roads Almost Impassable. Work at Braznell mines is progressing slowly. The country roads from Brownsville to the mine are almost impassable.
