

Distinguished Group
of French Military Leaders

GEN. FAYOLLE,
who saved the day
when he closed a thirty-
mile gap in the lines
during the German Spring offensive.

GEN. FRANCHET
D'ESPEREY,
commander in chief of the Balkan armies that crushed Bulgarian resistance.

GEN. MANGIN,
"Hero of the Marne," who led the attack
July 18 that hurled back the Crown Prince's armies.
(G. Underwood & Underwood.)

GEN. GALLIENI, French Minister of War, who hurried reinforcements from Paris to Joffre in 1914.

GEN. D'AUMADE,
who fought brilliantly in the initial battles of the war.

GEN. HENRI DE CASTELNAU, called the "savior of Nancy" from his heroic defense of that gateway to Paris.

GEN. DUBAIL, given the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor for distinguished services.

GEN. ROBERT NIVELLE, who led the French in the 1917 Offensive on the Aisne.