

Brilliant Galaxy of Commanders Who Have Led French
Troops to Victory

GEN. MANOURY,
the "Hero of the Ourcq," where he won a great victory in 1918.

GEN. DEBENEZY,
whose troops recaptured Roye in Foch's
great counter-offensive.

GEN. HENRI BERTHELOT, the military strategist who headed the mission to Rumania in 1916.

GEN. MAUD'HUY,
who commanded the French line from Arras to the Aisne in 1914.

REAR ADMIRAL LACAZE, French Minister of Marine, who did effective work against the submarine.

GEN. DE LANGLE DE CARY, who had charge of operations at Verdun before Petain took command.

GEN. HUMBERT,
whose army operated with great results in the Picardy offensive of 1918.

GEN. GOURAUD,
the "Lame Lion of Africa," whose army co-operated with the Americans in the Argonne fighting.
