

Generals Who Led
British Troops in Colonial and Far
East Campaigns

GEN. SIR
ARTHUR CURRIE,
commander of the Canadian forces in France.

GEN.
F. STANLEY MAUDE,
whose victorious career
in Mesopotamia was cut short by his death in 1917.

GEN. SIR EDMUND ALLENBY, whose brilliant campaigns in Palestine
crushed the Turkish armies.

GEN.
SIR FREDERICK MAURICE,
British Director of War Operations until the Spring of 1918.

GEN. TOWNSHEND,
who was forced to surrender Kut-el-Amara to the Turks after a gallant defense.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GEN. SIR W. R. BIRDWOOD,
"the Soul of Anzac," leader in the Gallipoli campaign and later in Belgium.

GEN. SIR W. R. MARSHALL, who brought the Mesopotamian campaign to a victorious ending in 1918.

GEN. BOTHA, Premier of South Africa and director of operations that won German East Africa.
(© Medem Photo Service.)