

Leaders of British Armies in the Four Years of the World War

GEN. SIR
W. R. ROBERTSON,
British Chief of Staff.

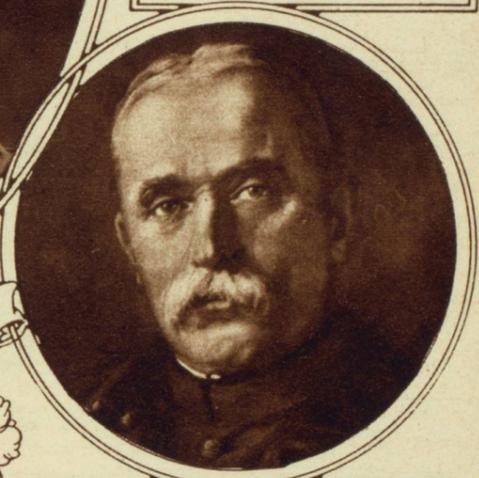

SIR HENRY WILSON,
a leading member of the British staff directing operations in France.

GEN. SIR JULIAN BYNG, whose victory over the German forces at Cambrai electrified Great Britain.

GEN. SIR JOHN MONASH, Australian leader and veteran of the Gallipoli campaign.

GEN. SIR JOHN FRENCH, who achieved distinction by his masterly retreat from Mons to the Marne.

GEN. SIR HERBERT C. O. PLUMER, in command of the British Army of Occupation at Cologne.

GEN. H. S. HORNE,
whose army was active in the dashing operations that drove the Germans from France.

GEN. SIR HENRY RAWLINSON,
with whose command American forces were brigaded in Foch's counteroffensive.