

British Admirals
Who Have Maintained Their Navy's Traditions

VICE ADMIRAL
FREDER'K STURDEE,
who sank the German fleet under von Spee in 1914.

ADMIRAL SIR REG-INALD TYRWHITT,
who was designated to receive the surrender of the German submarines.

ADMIRAL SIR JOHN FISHER,
head of the British Admiralty at the beginning of the war.

ADMIRAL
SIR CHRISTOPHER CRADOCK,
who went down with his ship,
the Good Hope, off Coronel.

ADMIRAL
SIR ROSSLYN E. WEMYSS,
First Sea Lord of the Admiralty,
delegate at armistice signing.

ADMIRAL HORACE HOOD, who lost his life on the Invincible in the Battle of Jutland.

ADMIRAL SIR J. R. JELlicOE, in chief command of the British Fleet at the Battle of Jutland.

ADMIRAL SIR HERBERT B. JACKSON, who co-operated with Allenby in the Palestinian campaign.