

German Generals
Who Led Great Armies During the War

GEN. VON BELOW,
who directed the German - Austrian operations that resulted in the Italian defeat at Caporetto in 1917.

GEN. VON EMMICH,
who was prominent in the fighting that immediately followed the German invasion of Belgium.
(© Brown Bros.)

GEN. VON KLUCK,
who led the right wing of the German Army and had come within 22 miles of Paris before he was thrown back to the Aisne.

GEN. VON BOEHN,
the "Organizer of Retreat," so called because of his skill in such operations.

GEN. VON GROENER, active in Ukraine operations and Commander in Chief after Ludendorff's resignation.

GEN. VON EINEM,
whose army was involved in the disastrous fighting after Foch launched his 1918 counterattack.

GEN. VON BISSING, Military Governor of Belgium at the time of the execution of Edith Cavell.

GEN. VON HEERINGEN, prominent in the early days of the fighting on the Marne and the Aisne.