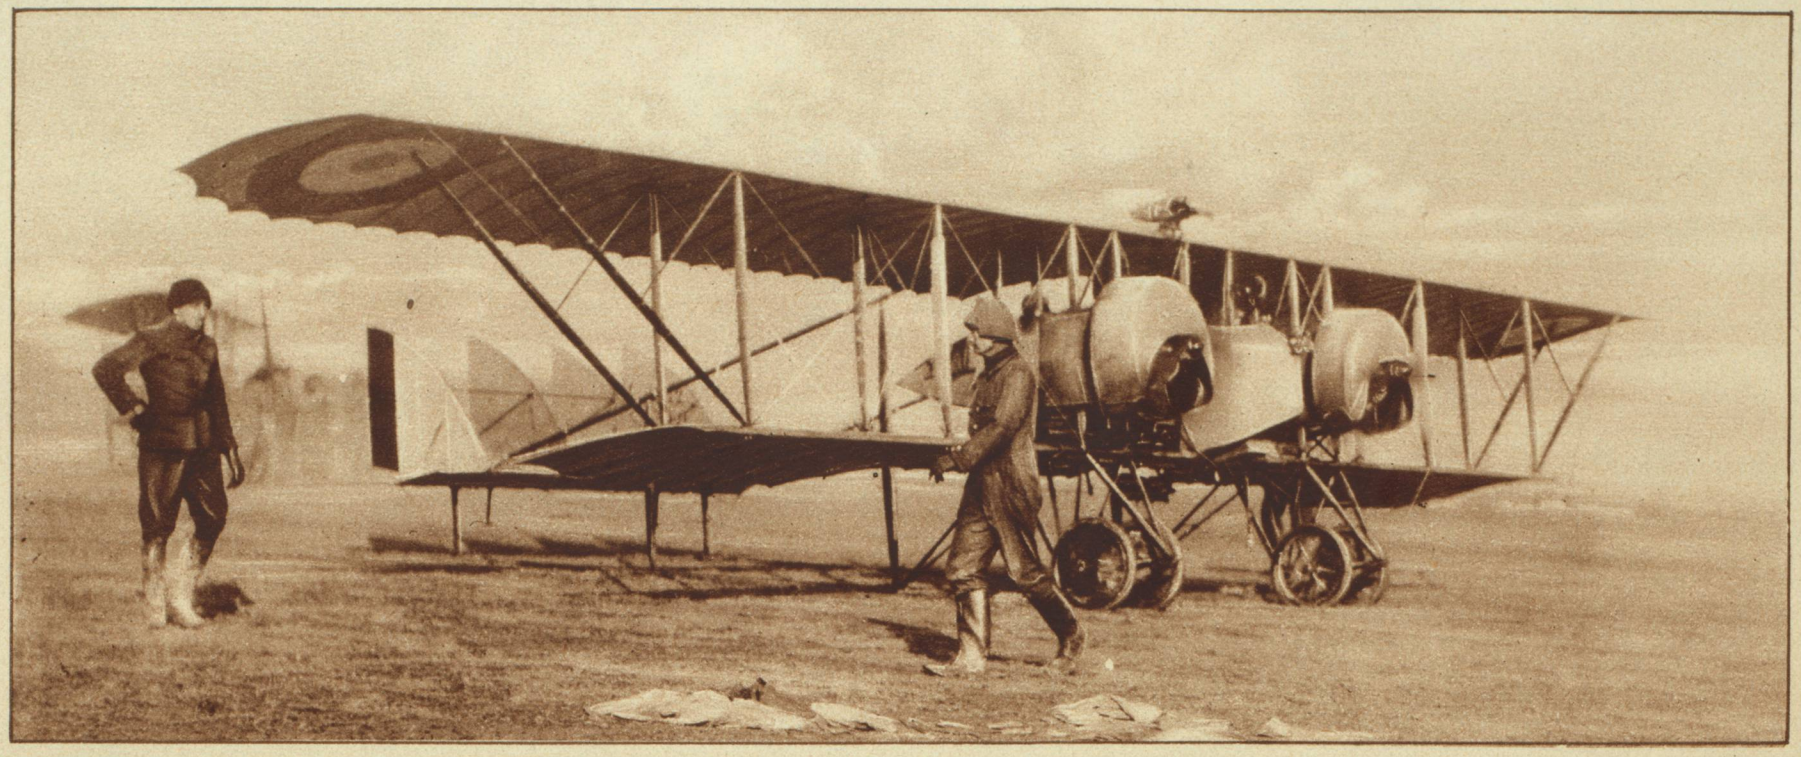
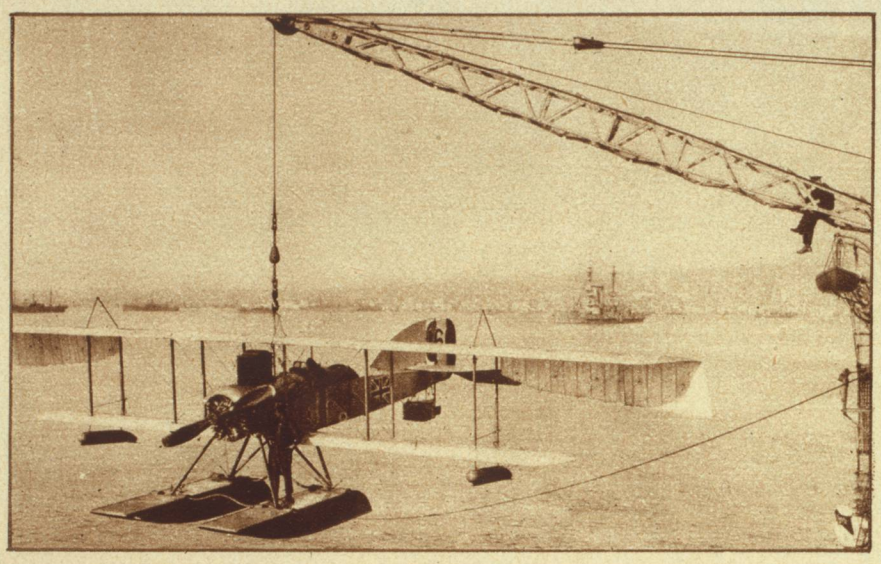
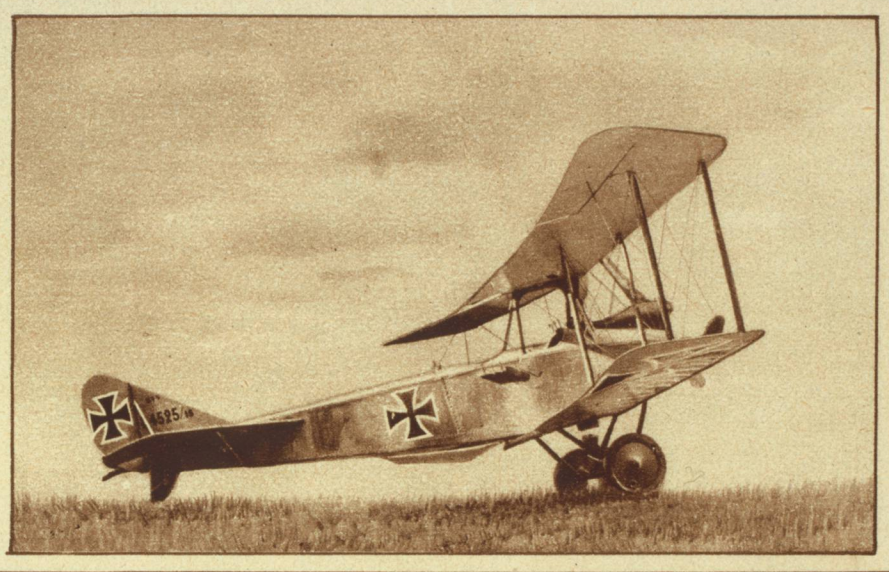
The Birds of War in Their Varied Activities



BIPLANE EQUIPPED WITH WIRELESS APPARATUS ON AN AVIATION FIELD IN FRANCE. BY THE USE OF THE RADIO ITS MOVEMENTS CAN BE CONTROLLED BY MESSAGES FROM THE GROUND, AND IT IN TURN CAN TRANSMIT ITS OWN OBSERVATIONS TO HEADQUARTERS.



HYDROPLANE BEING LAUNCHED FROM WARSHIP. THESE PLANES, HOVERING ABOVE THE SEA, CAN DETECT A LURKING SUBMARINE VERY READILY.



THIS GERMAN AIRPLANE REACHED PARIS, BUT IN A SENSE OTHER THAN THE AVIATOR DESIRED. IT WAS BROUGHT DOWN BY THE FRENCH.

DAMAGED AIRPLANES AT A REPAIRING PLANT IN FRANCE. THE SCARCITY AND HIGH PRICES OF MATERIALS MAKE REPAIR WORK A MATTER OF THE FIRST IMPORTANCE.
