

Canadian War Preparations Were Made on a Large and Efficient Scale

BAYONET PRACTICE BY MEN OF THE 87TH BATTALION, CANADIAN GRENADIER GUARDS. THIS COMMAND WAS ONE OF THE MOST STRIKING AND STALWART BODY OF MEN THAT CANADA SENT TO THE HELP OF THE MOTHER COUNTRY.

(© Dominion News Bureau.)

RECRUITING CARRIED ON AMONG CANADIAN AND BRITISH SUBJECTS IN NEW YORK DURING THE WAR RESULTED IN A VERY LARGE NUMBER OF ENLISTMENTS.

CANADIAN TROOPS LEAVING HOME TO GO TO THE NEAREST PORT WHERE THEY WERE TO EMBARK AND CROSS THE SEA TO JOIN THEIR COUNTRYMEN ALREADY AT THE FRONT.

(© Times Photo Service.)