

British and Canadian Soldiers in Severe Training

(ABOVE) — BAYONET PRACTICE AND OTHER EXERCISES BY BRITISH SOLDIERS BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE, EVEN WHERE THE GROUND WAS COVERED WITH SNOW, HELPED TO KEEP THEM IN PERFECT TRIM AND PREPARED THEM FOR THE HARDSHIPS OF A WINTER CAMPAIGN IN PICARDY & FLANDERS.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

(AT LEFT)—83rd BATTALION OF CANADIAN INFANTRY ON THEIR WAY TO ENTRAIN BEING REVIEWED BY CITY OFFICIALS WHILE PASSING THE CITY HALL AT TORONTO, CANADA. THE MEN WERE TRAINED TO THE MINUTE AND PRESENTED A STRIKING APPEARANCE AS THEY MARCHED IN PERFECT STEP.
(© Press Illustrating Company.)

BRITISH ROYAL ENGINEERS GOING THROUGH BAYONET EXERCISE. THE ENGINEERS DID SPLENDID WORK IN THE WAR NOT ONLY IN THEIR OWN SPHERE, BUT FREQUENTLY IN HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING.

(© Central News.)