

The Red Cross, "the Greatest Mother of Them All"

RED CROSS PARADE, BRINGING TOGETHER THE LARGEST BODY OF WAR NURSES EVER ASSEMBLED IN THIS COUNTRY, ESTIMATED AT 20,000, PASSING DOWN FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK, CHEERED BY 300,000 PEOPLE.

(© Times Photo Service.)

PRESIDENT WILSON LED AND REVIEWED THE GREAT RED CROSS PARADE IN NEW YORK AT THE OPENING OF THE SECOND WAR FUND CAMPAIGN. AT LEFT IS A VISTA OF BROADWAY CLOSED BY THE TIMES BUILDING AT TIMES SQUARE.

(© Times Photo Service.)