French Town Where Our Gallant Troops Defeated German Crack Divisions

RUINS OF CHATEAU-THIERRY, FRANCE, WHICH STAND AS MUTE BUT ELOQUENT WITNESS OF THE FIERCE FIGHTING OF WHICH IT WAS THE CENTRE. IT WAS HERE THAT THE AMERICANS DEFEATED THE FLOWER OF THE GERMAN ARMY AND CHECKED THE CROWN PRINCE IN HIS DRIVE TOWARD PARIS. PRESIDENT WILSON INSPECTED THE BATTLE-FIELD ON THE OCCASION OF HIS VISIT TO RHEIMS CATHEDRAL.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)