

The White Flags That Meant Defeat For the German Cause and Marked the Beginning of the End of the War

GERMAN DELEGATES ON THEIR WAY TO THE ARMISTICE CONFERENCE WITH MARSHAL FOCH REACHING THE FIRST FRENCH LINES NEAR HAUDROY NOV. 7, 1918.

(Drawing by Georges Scott in L'Illustration.)